B. C. Liquor Profits Now Run at Rate of $3,000,000 a Year

Notable Result of Government Sales During Early Life
Of Present Liquor Act.

British Columbia Government has made nearly three-quarters of a million dollars clear profit on liquor during the first three and one-half months of Government liquor control. This is at the rate of almost $3,000,000 a year.

Profit to the B. C. Government from the sale of liquor permits only for the three and one-half months from the time the Liquor Control Act came into effect on June 15 down to September 30 is $121,034, the Hon. J. D. MacLean, Provincial Secretary, announces to the Legislature.

Profit on the sale of liquor during the same period is about $600,000 net, according to preliminary returns, Dr. MacLean said.

No report has been made as to the profit on the actual sale of liquor so far, Dr. MacLean explains. The Government Liquor Act requires that the Board shall prepare a balance sheet and statement of profit and loss for the periods ending March 31 and September 30 each year. The Minister went on to say that these figures could not be issued immediately as the statement from the Board covering its sales in all parts of the Province have to go to the Comptroller-General after those dates and after that they have to be audited, which takes some time because of the amount of detail.

The profits of the Liquor Control Board for the period under review will be definitely known when the audit now proceeding is completed, Dr. MacLean said.

The preliminary estimate made by the Government for its profit on liquor operations for the whole year is $2,500,000, Dr. MacLean added. If the Liquor Board business keeps up to what it was during the first three and one-half months, profits for the whole year will exceed the estimate made by the Government.

Municipal representatives at the Parliament Buildings to-day rejected the statement from the Board covering its sales in all parts of the Province have to go to the Comptroller-General after those dates and after that they have to be audited, which takes some time because of the amount of detail.

The Hon. J. W. de J. Parris, Attorney-General to-day said that the Government through the Liquor Control Board has profited to the extent of $121,034 on the exchange of American money spent by visitors in Government liquor stores. This American money is all accounted for by the liquor vendors.

Political News From Canadian Provinces

Stratford, Ont., Nov. 2.—That Premier Meighen had no more right to restrict discussion at this time to the tariff than Mr. Meighen had had the right to retain his position at the head of affairs in Canada for the last sixteen months without a semblance of authority from the people was a declaration made by Hon. Mackenzie King, Leader of the Liberal Party, at a meeting here.

"The Prime Minister," Mr. King exclaimed, "dares not come before the people of Canada upon the record of his Government."

Mr. King attacked the Government on the score of its administration of the railways and the Government of having consistently denied Parliament information as to the expenditure of vast sums of money.

Directors.
Nothing was more important than that a representative of labor should be found on the board of directors of the National Railways as called for by the Liberal platform. Had such a man as James Murdoch been on the board for the last two years there might have been a different story with regard to the ever-increasing deficits.

The cost of living was chiefly determined by the cost of government, said Mr. King. Every policy should be framed with due regard to its effect upon the homes of Canada.

The Liberal Party did not stand for free trade. It stood for a broad national policy, and no industry in Canada earning a legitimate profit need have any concern for the Liberal, or the tariff.

The audience, which heard Mr. King was a large one. The meeting was held last night.

West Kootenay.
Nelson, B. C., Nov. 2.—Shortly before midnight last night the Farmer-Labor convention at the West Kootenay riding meeting here, dominated by W. Humphrey, a Nelson locomotive engineer, as candidate, to contest the riding against Dr. W. O. Rose, of Nelson, National Liberal and Conservative, and Dr. J. F. Hamilton, of Revelstoke, Liberal. The convention was in session from 1 o'clock in the forenoon.

SMUTS MAKES HIS POSITION CLEAR

Wants Dominions' Voices
Heard at Conference

Only True Representation of the Empire

Precedent Created at the Peace Gathering

London, Nov. 2.—Reuter's correspondent at Pretoria, South Africa, cables that Premier Smuts has issued a long statement in connection with his recent speech on the status of the Dominions, giving some misunderstanding both his attitude and the constitutional point raised were not previously reported.

The status of the Dominions, he says, is a matter which is not only fundamental for the present critical Irish negotiations, but also for the future peace and welfare of the whole British Empire.

It was with the larger point of view that I was concerned in making my original statement," he says, and adds: "To make the position of the Dominions' status clear it is necessary to consider what happened at the peace conference with what is now happening in connection with the disarmament conference at Washington."

Recognition.
"At Paris the Dominions had all the advantages or recognized individual states and consultation and mutual support. In the British Empire delegation our individual standing was questioned, while our team work made us really an effective force. This is a great precedent which has settled our international status, and which I feel should be followed in future. But now, at the first great international conference called after the Paris meeting, the Dominions, despite the position on the status of three of them, have been simply ignored. At Washington there will be only a British delegation in which the Dominions as such will not be represented."

Without a dissenting vote, the British Columbia Legislature yesterday passed the two anti-Asiatic resolutions brought before the House by G. S. Hanes of North Vancouver. One resolution calls on the Dominion Government to take the necessary steps to abrogate the Anglo-Japanese Treaty so far as Canada is concerned. The other asks the Dominion Government to amend the Immigration Act restricting totally as far as possible Asiatic Immigration.

H. G. Perry of Fort George, questioned the House before the resolutions were passed, declaring that from an Imperial point of view the first resolution was wrong. He asked people living on the Coast to remember conditions in the early part of the war and how the Japs helped out.

"I don't think that this Legislature should be so indifferent to the international aspect of this as to embarrass the British delegates at the Washington conference," said Mr. Perry.

He said he was heartily in favor of the second resolution to restrict Japanese immigration.

Government Been Busy.
The Hon. T. D. Pattullo, Minister of Lands, reviewed the efforts of the Government to prohibit the employment of Japanese on the timber lands of the Province, and how the Government has been busy.

He said he was heartily in favor of the second resolution to restrict Japanese immigration.

ENDLESS CHAIN OF DEATH FOR NEW YORK RATS

New York, Nov. 2.—An endless chain of death is being prepared for the rat population of New York, the city health department announced to-day.

A half dozen of the city's 6,000,000 rats will be inoculated with a serum, which will cause their death shortly after being released to return to their fellows. Experts say the carcasses will be eaten by other rats. These in turn will die and provide poison serum for succeeding links in the chain, it is claimed.

CANTEEN FUND VOTE TO BE TAKEN IN CANADA

Ottawa, Nov. 2.—A general referendum among the ex-service men and women is to be held to decide what shall be done with the $1,800,000 held in trust as Canada's apportionment from the surplus of the canteen funds of the Empire armies. It is announced in a statement authorized by Sir Henry Drayton, Minister of Finance, to-day. This follows the unanimous declaration in favor of such a course by the three leading organizations of ex-service men in Canada.

Representatives Deal With Details of Plan

London, Nov. 2.—There is reason to believe to-day that a plan of settlement of the Irish question has been drafted and is being discussed in detail by the committee representing the Government and the Sinn Fein delegation.

Aside from the recent formal meetings of the committee and of the conference as a whole there have been many intimate explorations of the situation at private meetings, at which representatives of each side, accompanied by mutual friends talked freely in conversations which are understood to have been confidential. The participants to any definite line of action.

Ulster.
London, Nov. 2.—Negotiations relative to peace in Ireland have progressed to a point which makes necessary the presence in London of Sir James Craig, the Premier of Ulster. It was declared here this morning.

Political correspondents of London newspapers to-day centred their attention on the Ulster question and speculated whether Sir James would join in the conversations going on here.

"It would appear that the day when Ulster must be associated with the Sinn Fein in the negotiations is near at hand," declared a correspondent of The London Times, "but the manner and time of Sir James's coming are matters of private speculation."

The Daily Mail asserted there would be little surprise if Sir James should be invited soon to join in the Irish conference and other newspapers treated such an event as a possibility. A Dublin dispatch to The Daily Mail stated that many people there were more sanguine than might be expected over the Ulster situation. It said prominent persons in Dublin had been in Belfast recently and had sounded various circles there with optimistic results, but the dispatch added that the root of this optimism seemed to lie principally in the belief that the financial position of Belfast was so bad that a junction with the rest of Ireland might be formed by the stringency of money.

Rumors.
There were pessimistic rumors current here to-day concerning the Irish negotiations, but there were no developments as far as known to justify the opinion that the situation was either better or worse than had been during the past few days. The absence of any definite prospect of an immediate settlement would obviously lessen the chance of Premier Lloyd George's sailing on the line.

Aquitania, which is to leave on Saturday for the United States. Some papers were invited in their statement that Mr. Lloyd George had abandoned all idea of starting Saturday, although he was still determined to go as soon as possible.

AMERICAN SCHOOL POPULATION IS ABOUT 34,000,000

Washington, Nov. 2.—The school population of the United States is 22,570,000, the Census Bureau announced to-day. Of this number, comprising citizens five to twenty years old, more than 21,370,000 were attending school between September, 1918, and January, 1920, when the census was taken.

It is figured that at least $75,000 or $100,000 will be required for relief work. The Red Cross, Provincial Police and Citizen Committees are working hard to render relief and comfort.

The relief organization on the mainland is as follows: Nicol Thompson, chairman; George V. Holt, treasurer; G. G. Shalleross, manager; Bruce A. McKelvie, secretary.

Guelph, Ont., Nov. 2.—Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King's appeal under date of October 27 for further information regarding the shipment of large consignments of munitions to this country from Great Britain which the Leader of the Liberal forces had noticed being unloaded from a ship at Esquimau, Que., was answered last night by Hon. Guthrie, Minister of Militia, who in a long statement reiterated that the importation of these munitions involved no new expenditure by the Government.

Mr. Guthrie's communication was accompanied by schedules marked A, B and C, under which he listed the war stores and ammunition requisitioned by Canada under the arrangement with the British Government, the stores which Canada is still entitled to requisition and the equipment which Canada has received as a gift from the British Government.

Must Follow Pioneers, Barrow Says; Settlers In B. C. Making Good

Review of the land settlement policy of the B. C. Government, as well as a consideration of conditions in soldiers' settlements under the Government, was given to the Legislature this afternoon by the Hon. E. D. Barrow, Minister of Agriculture.

Mr. Barrow declared that no doubt the people back home watch the papers to see how hard their elected representative can knock the Government, but surely a representative is not strengthening his position unless in his criticism he is careful of his facts.

"Take, for instance, statements made by honorable members representing Comox and Kaslo respecting conditions obtaining in the soldier settlement areas in their respective ridings," Mr. Barrow said.

The member for Comox in dealing with the situation at Merville, generally speaking was very fair, but evidently in some instances he was not fully informed, which possibly has resulted in his forming wrong conclusions, and whatever may be said about the Merville district and its suitability for farming, it must be remembered that it was selected by the returned soldiers themselves.

"As stated by the member from Comox, the land was purchased at $5 per acre from the logging company and prior to the demand being made by the returned men that they be established in communities, but these facts have been reiterated so many times that I believe the public are heartily tired of listening to criticisms and contradictions regarding those two settlement areas, but I am desirous of knowing the facts of this House should know the facts with the respective points that are being brought up by members representing those areas at the present time."

Elkins-Sawmills-Princess George.
"The member for Comox stated that the Merville settlers complained because of having to pay $5 or $5.50 per thousand higher prices to Esplanade and May, who are returned soldiers who have been in the area, than they would have done if they had been able to buy lumber from other neighboring mills."

"Now I do not think this is a fair criticism from the point of view of either the Board or the Merville settlers. As far as the Board is concerned the Esplanade and May lumber was cut entirely by white labor at wages in the neighborhood of 45 cents per hour, ordinary white men's wages. In fact most of the employees were settlers themselves. On the other hand all the outside lumber was cut by Indians."

WREATH ON UNKNOWN
SOLDIERS' TOMB

Woman Traveling From Britain to United States

London, Nov. 2.—Red roses for England, maple leaves for Canada, violets and forget-me-nots for Wales, shamrock for Ireland and heather for Scotland will have their place in the wreath which Mrs. J. McCudden, mother of a British soldier who fell during the war, will place on the tomb of the Unknown Soldier at Arlington, Va., November 11. Mrs. McCudden is now on her way to the United States with the wreath. The flowers were placed on a block of ice six feet square so their freshness might be preserved.

Mrs. McCudden is the mother of the Royal Air Force, who brought down a number of German aviators during the war. She was chosen from a large number of war-bereaved women by the Pilgrim Fathers Association as the one to take the wreath to the United States.

In Paris.
Paris, Nov. 2.—On the occasion of All Saints' Day, 200,000 persons visited the Paris' cemeteries and nearly 100,000 filed past the tomb of the Unknown Soldier at the Arc de Triomphe, which was covered with large quantities of flowers.

President and Mrs. Millerand personally placed wreaths on the tomb.

Mr. Balfour, British Conference Delegate, Crossing to States

Leaves Britain to Join In Discussion of Limitation of Armaments At Sessions In Washington; R. McKenna Speaks of Share of United States.

London, Nov. 2.—A. J. Balfour, head of the British delegation to the Washington conference on limitation of armaments, left London this morning for Liverpool. He will embark there this afternoon on the liner Empress of France for Quebec, from which city he will go direct to Washington, expecting to arrive there November 10.

Accompanying Mr. Balfour are General the Earl of Cavan, Sir John Jordan, Vice-Air Marshal J. F. A. Higgins, Miles W. Lampson and Lieut. Gage and Lieut. Little, members of the British secretariat.

New York, Nov. 2.—Reginald McKenna, former Chancellor of the British Exchequer, who has been making a three-weeks' study of the commercial and economic situation in the United States, declared in an interview here:

"I dared to tread on dangerous ground for a moment. It would be to say that the influence of the United States is indispensable in the councils of the world. You are already tied to Europe and the Far East by the bonds of trade and the responsibilities which arise from this relationship cannot be ignored without great loss to the world and an unfavorable receipt upon your account. In England, the calling of the international conference by President Harding is most warmly welcomed, not merely for the sake of the results which it is hoped may be achieved, but because it is the first time a great and powerful Government has assumed the responsibility of bringing together the Prime Ministers of other nations to confer upon the means of securing lasting conditions of peace."

BRITISH NOTE TO SOVIET RUSSIA

London, Nov. 1.—Great Britain, it was indicated in authoritative quarters to-day, will reply to the recent note of M. Tchicherin, Foreign Minister of Soviet Russia, offering conditionally to assume payment of debts of Old Russia up to 1914, by the dispatch of a note pointing out the Soviet's offer mentions only the imperial state debts, which are but a part of the Russian total.

It will also set forth that the conference to establish peace desired by the Moscow Government would be possible only after an Allied, or preferably an international, consensus of opinion was obtained regarding the policy that was to be pursued toward Russia's indebtedness.

The British note, which will be forwarded, will ask for further details as to the general character of the Soviet offer.

In official circles it was asserted to-day that the offer from Moscow had not been received in a spirit of hopefulness regarding the Russian debt, but was taken as merely another attempt to delay progress toward re-establishment of Anglo-Russian relations, which started with the signing of the trade agreement.

NEW PARLIAMENT
OPENED IN MALTA

Malta, Nov. 1.—The Prince of Wales on his way to India on the battle-cruiser Renown, opened the Maltese Parliament to-day. The event marks the introduction of a new type of government in Malta, based upon the principle of responsible self-government, subject to definite limitations laid down in the interests of imperial security.

The main principle is the establishment of two concurrent governmental systems, one for local affairs under the complete legislative and administrative control of the Maltese people, and another for matters of imperial concern, taking orders from the British Government.

Cramer Spoke.
 Sunnyside, P. E. I., Nov. 1.—Hon. T. A. Cramer, Leader of the National Progressive Party, addressing a meeting here to-night, referred to criticism of the connection of H. W. Wood, President of the United Farmers of Alberta, with the Progressive movement. "I am betraying no secret," he said, "when I say that in 1917 Sir Robert Borden sent for Mr. Wood and discussed with him the question of his entering the Union government. Such charges as these which have been made against Mr. Wood seek, in an insidious way, to leave the impression that there is something sinister behind the Progressive movement."

Mr. Cramer declared the tariff policy of Sir Wilfrid Laurier was protection. The purpose of it was to build up special industries in Canada. "Everyone," he said, "has paid toll to the textile manufacturers through the operation of the tariff. 'What has this country got out of it except a few buildings and employment for a few thousand people?' he asked. 'The tariff simply has been a means for the exploitation of the Canadian people. One of the reasons for the high cost of living lies just in that fact.'

Wheat.
 A strong argument of the protectionists was that the farmer should look to his home market. There was nothing more absurd," Mr. Cramer argued. At the present time Canada produced about 300,000,000 bushels of wheat a year. To consume that, Canada would need a population of 50,000,000 people and it had been calculated that, at the present rate of increase, 500 years must elapse before Canada would have such a population. Moreover, with the proper use of fertilizer, there was no reason why Canada should not produce 1,000,000,000 bushels of wheat a year.

"Sir George Foster told you I was opposed to big business," Mr. Cramer added. "I do not object to big business, but I do object to Government bonuses to big business in order that they may exploit the people. I have been described as a free trader. I believe in the principle of protection as applied to our fiscal policy."

But Mr. Cramer agreed that the tariff could not be swept away overnight. Changes must be made gradually.

Proof Required.
 "The British Safeguarding of Industries Act had been cited as evidence that Great Britain was abandoning free trade," Mr. Cramer observed in this regard that the Safeguarding of Industries Act was intended to operate against certain highly specialized German industries, and before an industry could receive protection under its provision that industry must come before a committee of Parliament and demonstrate that it needed protection, and that it would be a national benefit for the industry to get it. One of the planks of the Progressive Party's platform, added Mr. Cramer, "is that an industry wanting protection in Canada must come before a committee of Parliament and demonstrate that it requires it."

"We want to know what we are protecting before we give state aid to any industry in this way," he concluded.

Meighen Spoke.
 Pictou, Ont., Nov. 1.—"Mr. Cramer says the railways must be taken out of politics. Now, the management of the system was given a free hand, and no political influence was exercised on it of any kind," said Premier Meighen in an address at a campaign meeting here to-night.

"You would not see political leaders scrambling around looking for issues if they had any confidence in their attitude on the issue they raised," he said.

His party proposed to see that the tariff was high enough to protect Canadian industries. There was no intention of building a high tariff wall, but if money was to be saved, the efforts of Mr. Cramer and Mr. King had shaken the confidence of Canadian industry in regard to the tariff, Mr. Meighen said.

"What is to be thought of a tariff platform which is revealed by its enemies and concealed by its friends?" asked Mr. Meighen. This was the situation in regard to the Liberal platform, he said.

Edwards Spoke.
 Hon. J. W. Edwards, Minister of Health, Immigration and Colonization, said the greatest industry in Canada was the farming industry, and it was entitled to protection just as other Canadian industries were. A large section of the United States was fortunate in having a temperate climate, and the farmers found it unnecessary to provide expensive buildings to house their stock.

 Yorkton, Sask., Nov. 1.—"I broke with the Progressives when in my judgment they ceased to be progressive," declared Dr. Michael Clark, former M. P. for Red Deer, in opening to-night his campaign as a Liberal candidate in the Federal constituency of Mackenzie. One of the largest crowds in the political history of the town formed his audience.

Dr. Clark stated that within the last few months the Progressive movement had taken on an "illiberal, narrow, intolerant and purely class aspect."

"I worked in politics for certain objects—for things which did not differ materially from the objects of the Progressives so long as they represented an advanced wing of Liberalism," said Dr. Clark. "Within the last few months, however, that movement has degenerated into a narrow, autocratic class movement. My views about certain class movements are not the growth of the last few months. On March 5, 1920, speaking in Parliament, I used this language:

"With what has fallen from these gentlemen about any one class permanently ruling this country I am in absolute agreement. The only logical and effective method is to combine upon a common policy sincerely held, as making for the public good, for which all should combine."

HIGH EXPLOSIVES
WERE STOLEN

Four Persons on Trial in Newcastle, England

London, Nov. 2.—Further developments in the alleged widespread and highly organized conspiracy to accumulate arms, ammunition and high explosives for purposes directly against the safety of the realm were brought out at the trial of four persons at Newcastle yesterday. Miner Joseph, a local organizer of the Irish Self-Determination League, and a self-declared member of the "Irish Republican Army"; Gilbert Harrington, a Roman Catholic schoolmaster and secretary of the Tyneside branch of the "Irish Self-Determination League"; and Arnold Merrett, an electrical engineer and his wife being placed on trial, charged with having in their possession high explosives with intent to endanger life.

Counsel for the prosecution alleged that 652 pounds of high explosives had been stolen recently from a colliery. He omitted the names of his civilian witnesses, declaring that witnesses at the last session of the prosecution of two members of the Irish self-determination League had been subjected to a campaign of intimidation.

ARMY ACT GIVEN
CAMPAIGN MENTION

Bethelville, Que., Nov. 1.—That Sir Wilfrid Laurier had personally asked him on June 23, 1917, to withdraw his sub-amendment to the Military Service Bill giving it a six-months' trial and refusing to vote for it or authorize the Liberal Party to vote for it, had, in his opinion, brought about the introduction of conscription, was the claim of J. A. Barrette, Conservative member for Bethelville, County from 1911 to 1917, made in a speech here.

Mr. Barrette further stated that Sir Wilfrid had asked him to see Hon. R. LeMieux and that in the course of an interview the latter had intimated that if he would withdraw his amendment he would be later elected by acclamation. He had again refused to withdraw his sub-amendment to the conscription bill.

Los Angeles, Nov. 2.—When the case of Arthur C. Burch, indicted jointly with Mrs. Madeline Obenchain for the alleged murder of J. Belton Kennedy, was called for trial in court here, counsel for Burch presented affidavits to the court asking that Burch be examined as to his sanity.

The affidavits were made by attorneys for Burch. They declared that the application for a sanity test was based upon the "incoherent speech and actions" of the defendant during the past few days.

Mrs. Dalton tells of a Well-known Doctor's Prescription that is safe for Young Mothers to take as a Tonic and Nerve because it contains no harmful ingredients.

London, Ont.—"Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription saved my life years ago and for that reason I am most enthusiastic in my recommendation of it to women who are ailing and weak. I was taken when in an expectant condition; then blood poisoning set in and my family became greatly alarmed. The doctor advised them to give me Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and I took several bottles of it and was restored to absolutely perfect health. I later took Favorite Prescription as a tonic and nerve and received great benefit from it. As a woman's medicine it is unequalled."—Mrs. Jennie Dalton, 767 York St.

Gravity not a Real Test

A MOTOR fuel to give good mileage and complete satisfaction must contain a continuous and unbroken chain of boiling points. It must be a straight-distilled product of uniform high quality. The so-called gravity test means nothing. It is not a real measure of gasoline quality.

Imperial Premier Gasoline is a straight-distilled, all-refinery product. It burns clean. It all goes into power and mileage from the first to the last drop in your tank.

Imperial Premier Gasoline gives you everything which you have a right to expect from good gasoline. If better gasoline could be made, Imperial Oil Limited would make it.

What Politicians Are Doing, Saying and Thinking in the B. C. Legislature.

Elliott Writes Premier.
Premier Oliver has received the following letter from R. T. Elliott, K. C., partner of R. J. Cromie:

Hon. John Oliver,
Premier, Parliament Buildings,
Victoria, B. C.

Dear Mr. Premier.—Newspapers publish the fact that you have again availed yourself of the protection afforded you by the walls of the Legislature to make a personal attack on me.

As is usual in your outbursts you are contradicted by official documents. You say you passed the Dolly Varden legislation to protect the workmen and secure payment of wages due.

Your own official report, published in your sessional papers and signed by your own chairman, Mr. D. White, M. L. A., states explicitly that the mining company offered to pay all wage claims whether property chargeable against the mine and railway or not, so that no workmen could suffer as a result of disputes between the mining company and the contractors. Therefore, you did not pass the legislation to protect the workmen and to secure payment of wages; but you did pass it to take the mine from the owners and give it to the contractors and you thereby discredited British Columbia all over the world.

Now as to the Pacific Great Eastern. In negotiating the settlement you were minister of railways and I was acting as lawyer for the contractors who were being sued by the government.

I told you I would absolutely confine myself to legal questions and would not have anything to do with any political arrangements. Consequently I had nothing to do with return of equipment; and when this question came up I brought the contractors to your office in Victoria so that you could settle the matter with them direct without interference by me. You produced a book and wrote in it just what you intended to do about returning equipment; and if there is any questions about it, why just produce your book again.

Similarly, in connection with the finishing of the work of constructing the Pacific Great Eastern Railway to Prince George, the action to be taken was political and I would have nothing to do with it. You are personally responsible for the arrangement under which the original contractors nominated a business associate to finish the railway to Fort George on a cost and percentage basis. The duty is on you, not on me, to explain this to the public. In explaining it please do not go outside official documents.

Yours truly,
R. T. ELLIOTT.
Vancouver, October 21.

M. B. Jackson, chairman of the private bills committee, told the Legislature yesterday afternoon that although rules were amended last session to make it more simply and less costly to get a private bill before the committee and the House, there were still persons who are not complying with the rules.

Mr. Jackson pointed out that applicants were neglecting to do the newspaper advertising required by law. He said he hoped that agents would be taken to heart by persons planning to come before the committee.

Anxious About P. G. E.

There are many things which W. K. Esling wants to know about the P. G. E. Here are some he has asked the Minister of Railways:

Upon what date did the Government become the owners of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway?

On what date did the Government take possession of that railway and begin operating and begin construction?

Did the Government pay any money for operating or on construction of the railway for the period between the date of ownership and the date of possession; and, if so, how much and to whom, and out of what fund and by what authority, and where is the entry of same in the Public Accounts?

Since the date when the Government became the owner of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway, how much: (a) To the end of 1918; (b) to the end of 1919; (c) to the end of 1920; (d) to September 30, 1921, has been expended under the three respective heads of: (1) Construction; (2) interest; (3) losses in operating the railway?

What is the aggregate of said interest during the above period paid: (a) On bonds guaranteed by the Province; (b) on bonds authorized by the Province for purposes of the railway and actually sold; (c) on Treasury bills based on such authorized bonds; (d) on other advances (if any) from the Consolidated Fund; (e) on loans (if any) to the railway from any other source?

What is the further estimated capital outlay from September 30, 1921, required to complete the railway from Squamish to Fort George?

When is it estimated train service into Port George will be given?

Under item 118, Pacific Great Eastern Statement to June 30, 1921, is loss and damage to freight of 1,059.86. What are the separate claims making up this amount?

What is the date of each separate claim, by whom was each claim made and to whom was cheque issued in payment thereof?

On the date the Government became the owners of the railway and up to the end of 1918, what separate sums of money were received by the railway company other than for capital account, or as to loans, and not from operating or from subsidiary enterprises? From whom and at what dates of receipt? Ditto in 1919; ditto in 1920; ditto in 1921 up to September 30.

Vancouver Island Road.

Mr. Pooley wants to know from the Minister of Public Works when the Government started work on the road from Port Hardy to Quigino Sound, whether work is still proceeding, the estimated cost, how much has been spent up to Oct. 1 and the Government estimate of what it will cost to finish the road.

Hallowe'en Party.

The children of West Saanich were the guests at a delightful Hallowe'en party in the West Saanich Hall on Friday evening. A few of those who had planned to come were unable to do so on account of the rain, but the majority of the little ones were present, and judge by the zeal with which they entered all the games the weather had not dampened their spirits. After a few of the old-time Hallowe'en games had been played the children who were in costume marched in couples around the hall and the many bright and pretty colors made a charming picture.

The small ghost (Master Willie Sluggitt), who headed the procession, drew forth much comment, while little Joyce Thomson in her black paper dress with yellow trimmings and tall hat; Margaret Johnston as a yellow daffodil; and Margaret Clark as another little flower girl were the objects of much admiration.

After due consideration the Judges, Mr. and Mrs. T. Peden, and Mr. T. Tumban, awarded prizes as follows: Girls' best Hallowe'en costume, Shirley Sluggitt. Boys' best Hallowe'en costume, Robert Knappenberger. Best dressed girl, Daisy Clark. Best comic character, Claude Creed.

At the conclusion of the march the smaller children were taken to an adjoining room where magic lanterns operated by Messrs. H. L. Knappenberger and L. Thomson kept them well amused. A salmagundi was played by the older children at which the following proved victors—First, Mary Peden and Lorne Shaw; second, Ida Heyer and Claude Creed.

The various games were in charge of Mrs. R. W. Sluggitt, Mrs. L. Thomson, Mrs. Knappenberger, Mr. and Mrs. Atkins, Mr. Herbert Creed, and Mr. J. W. Sluggitt.

Delicious refreshments were served from a long table prettily decorated with marigolds, greenery and yellow paper, while two large blue cats were prominently displayed.

Women's Institute.

Sidney, Nov. 1.—The North Saanich Women's Institute held its usual monthly meeting this afternoon in Wesley Hall, the president in the chair. The president's report was read and adopted. A letter was read from G. A. Downard, leader of the Metropolitan choir, Victoria, in answer to one from the Institute, accepting an invitation for the choir to come out to Sidney and tender "The Holy City" on November 17. Mrs. Ormond and Mrs. Simister were appointed to arrange for a hall, while Mrs. Deason was chosen to arrange for transportation. Mrs. Deason was also asked to interview the G. W. V. A. regarding the sale of poppies on Armistice Day. The president awarded the prizes won in the garden competition and the flower show. At the close of the meeting a demonstration of rugs was given by J. E. Morris, of School Crossroads, who gave a short address on carpets from the time that the carpet looms were first started in Kidderminster, England, right down to the present time. He showed two fine rugs made entirely by his own hands, even to the dyeing of the material, and also demonstrated how to make them. At the close of the demonstration a hearty vote of thanks was passed to the silver tea served by Mrs. J. T. Taylor and Mrs. Patchell.

Pleased With Results.

Sooke Harbor, Nov. 1.—The delegation who went to Victoria Monday regarding the Sooke River bridge made their report to the people of Sooke, Otter Point and Jordan River at a public meeting held at the Sooke Hall upon the return at 7 p.m. Monday. A large number had gathered. It was explained that the Government had planned to throw a foot bridge upon the river, leaving the delegates had endeavored clearly to show to the Hon. Dr. King, Minister of Public Works, that such a course would be of little use, and an unnecessary expense, and that the money so spent could be far better used in giving the districts the only thing that would be of any real service—a ferry or pontoon bridge even though the latter would be more costly.

After a lengthy and heated discussion it was moved by Dr. Felton "That the minimum we the people of Sooke, Otter Point and Jordan River should accept is a means of conveying a loaded car of not less than seven tons across the river, leaving the Government officials to handle the situation at the least possible cost to the Province.

It was then moved by Mr. Dobson and seconded by Mr. Kohout that three more be added to the number upon the delegation and the following were then nominated to act—Mr. Alec Campbell, Mr. A. H. Dobson and Mr. Clay, and were approved by acclamation.

It was agreed that the very closest communication with the Department of Public Works be maintained through Mr. R. H. Pooley, M.P.P.

Hallowe'en Dance.

Sooke.—The Sooke Athletic Association gave a very enjoyable dance at the Sooke Hall on Monday evening, October 31. The Sooke orchestra rendered excellent music, while Mrs. Balfour sang one or two songs in a manner which charmed the gathering, and she was loudly applauded. Charles Morris relieved the orchestra during an interval and played the new accordion recently purchased by the association in excellent time. Supper was served by the ladies of the district. The Sooke Athletic Association is giving a "Get-together" evening every week, dividing the evening into two sections the first part being in the nature of a Progressive Whist Drive followed by a dance after supper until 12 p.m. These evenings are proving a great success owing to the efforts of the guests. H. Flimley's orchestra supplied the music for the dancing, which was kept up until 2 a.m.

Hallowe'en Dance.

Duncan, Nov. 1.—About 250 people attended the Hallowe'en dance given by the Agricultural Society last evening, and organized and managed by Mrs. Innes-Noad.

The hall was wonderfully decorated with greenery, black and yellow streamers, pumpkins for light shades, black cats, owls, witches and bats, not forgetting the gruesome skulls and ghosts, and praise for the decorations, Mr. A. G. Eastman, Miss Innes-Noad and R. E. Macbean, was heard on every side. Mrs. A. G. Eastman and Mrs. Combe-Martin had a busy time selling pretty caps for the dancers to wear and add to the brightness of the scene. Upstairs the supper room was beautifully arranged, many remarking they had never seen it look better. The Hallowe'en idea was again carried ernment placed an anti-Asian clause in its timber contracts. Japanese and timber-holders, however, took action with the result that Ottawa notified the Provincial Government that its position was inconsistent. Mr. Pattullo said that B.C. was not satisfied with that and he read a letter he sent to Premier Oliver urging the Government "to hold to its present position to the last ditch."

B. C. HOUSE VOTES
TO END TREATY

"That was the position also taken by the executive," Mr. Pattullo went on. "We are not going to allow timber-holders to employ Japs or to allow Japs to get possession of any of the natural resources of this Province. It is our intention if necessary to take this to the Privy Council and have this matter decided for once and all.

Not Antagonistic.

"The people of B. C. have no feeling of antagonism to the Oriental. But we do say that there are biological reasons why they should not come to our Province. We do not believe that the white and yellow races will properly mix. We will keep on our side and they will take theirs and we will do business with them where business is profitable."

Mr. Pattullo said the Government offered no opposition to the resolutions.

Farmers Interested.

Kenneth Duncan of Cowichan told how the question has been taken up during recent years by agricultural interests of the Province, which went so far as to plan to send a representative to the recent Imperial Conference in London. He asserted that there are 25,913 acres in B. C. in the possession of Orientals by way of ownership or lease.

"In every attempt to curtail the activities of Orientals here we have been met by the provisions of the Anglo-Japanese treaty," Mr. Duncan went on. "These resolutions strike at the root of the trouble."

SHORT OF STUFF?

If Mr. Meighen is correctly reported he took the liberty of informing the people of Oshawa last night that the Union Government was formed in 1917 as a result of a patriotic response to a country-wide call for the burial of party differences in order that the whole machinery of government might be concentrated on winning the war. There is nothing in the rest of his remarks, or even in his interpretation of Opposition opinion of the inception of that form of administrative control, to suggest a reason for this extraordinary common-place recital of political history which every schoolboy ought to understand by this time. Of course the Union Government came into existence for a specific purpose and this newspaper among many others that are now assisting to present Mr. Meighen with his marching orders supported the arrangement because it was necessary to deal with an abnormal problem by the use of abnormal procedure. But three long years have elapsed since the last shot was fired and yet Mr. Meighen seems to consider that this country should retain its governmental paraphernalia of war time in order to deal favorably with another policy which he seems to put on all fours with the enemy that was banging upon the gates of the Empire in 1917. British Columbia will expect to hear something better than this when the Prime Minister comes West.

WASTING TIME.

When members of the Opposition in the local Legislature deal with Civil Service costs they invariably set out with the express intention of misleading the general public by ignoring the difference between the bookkeeping systems adopted by the present Administration and its predecessor. On Monday afternoon Mr. Bowser deliberately repeated his old argument of comparisons without reminding the House that large amounts paid in respect of salaries during his term of office were dealt with under other heads and were not included in the salary list. But half a million dollars of a discrepancy in this or any other argument advanced by the Leader of the Opposition does not worry him in the least. On the other hand the time of the Legislature must of necessity be wasted in order that departmental heads may provide the people with accurate statistics concerning public business.

MAKING PROGRESS.

Educationalists from British Columbia and the State of Washington met at Bellingham the other day and passed the following excellent resolution without a dissenting voice:

"Whereas, the friendly relations between countries, more especially English speaking countries will be promoted by a less biased and radical presentation of the common history of these countries. Be it resolved that it is the sense of this organization that a review of the school histories of these countries should be undertaken, and that a commission should be appointed jointly by the National Association of Canada and the United States to the end that history teaching in these countries may be made true to the interests of harmony and good-will in these several English speaking countries, without violating vital historical truths."

The resolution was proposed by the Superintendent of the Seattle schools and it will be duly presented to the proper authorities in both countries for action at the earliest possible date.

It has been argued in some quarters that the course proposed is not at all necessary because of the changing sentiment on both sides of the Atlantic as a sequel to common sacrifice on the battlefield. But it should be remembered that a school population of considerably more than thirty millions constitutes the training ground for exercises either in concord or suspicion. If one hundred years of Anglo-American relations is to be presented to young Canada and young America only in that form of detail which the individual interpretation of history has hitherto indulged, how will it be possible for the coming generation to learn the lessons which are beginning to emphasize the responsibility which rests upon Anglo-Saxondom as a whole?

Who can estimate the worth of the influence upon the progress of the world that a practical application of the resolution quoted above would insure?

SO OBVIOUS.

If the terms of the resolution and its sponsors did not convey sufficient of the sentiments of the Old Guard in the British House of Commons Colonel Gretton supplied any deficiency that one might have supposed existed when he seconded the vote of censure on Monday with the following gem of Imperialistic essence:

"Our Empire was built on considering justice and right, not on considering the opinion of other people."

While the gentleman in question may be right up to a certain point he seems to forget that the British Empire never would have been what it is today if those primary responsible for its management had not appreciated the importance of self-letting responsibility and authority. Because one section remains to be convinced that it is in its own interests to retain its allegiance to the Empire there is no case made out in favor of Colonel Gretton's theory of ignoring "the opinion of other people."

His is the type of Imperialism that would govern the Dominions from Downing Street and compel private members of Parliament from the North of Scotland to come to Westminster and waste a great deal of time over matters which could be settled quicker and more economically by a Legislature North of the Tweed.

REGISTER NOW!

It should be remembered by those qualified electors who failed to exercise their privilege at the polls last December that unless they take the precaution to register before the various ward offices close next Saturday they will be unable to vote at the forthcoming Dominion general election. There are five registration offices and their work will have to be complete by the afternoon of the day mentioned. Those who registered in readiness for the Provincial elections and did not vote must see to it that their names are included in the new lists which will represent the British Columbia electoral roll brought up to date. To have registered prior to last December and to have neglected to exercise the privilege of voting is no better than having failed to register at all. That is why each eligible member of the electorate should make sure that his and her name is placed on the list in time. And the issues to be decided next month are of sufficient importance to warrant an inspection of the lists by voters who complied with the statutory requirements of the Province, which automatically retain their names on the roll, in case errors have been made during the extension and amending processes.

GETTING BACK.

Political life in Great Britain does not take kindly to novelties. It has been a going concern along conventional lines for too long a period. Not even a Northcliffe or a Bottomley has been able to disturb the even tenor of its way with what might have stood a chance with other protagonists. Thus it is small wonder that the by-election which has been occasioned by the death of Mr. Kennedy Jones will be fought without an anti-waste candidate. Like the contests of yore a straight Conservative will do battle with a straight Liberal. The former has announced his intention to support the Coalition Government with the important reservation that financial questions will find him responding to personal rather than to party considerations. Presumably his opponent hopes to add himself to that slim minority which still believes that Mr. Asquith may be able to gather his forces for one more offensive should the political corpse of his successor be found among the wreckage of some distantly future political re-adjustment. At present former supporters of the old Unionist Party outnumber the Asquithian Liberals by nearly three to one.

COMMUNISTS STILL
RULE PETROGRAD

Result of Soviet Election Just Held

Riga, Nov. 2.—In the three days' election for members of the Petrograd soviet, 705 Communists and 181 non-partisans have been chosen. The educational workers elected Lenin, Kaledin, Lunacharsky and Gorky, while the Petrograd Red Army voted unanimously for Trotsky.

To Operate Ships.
Riga, Nov. 2.—Uniform regulations for direct freight and passenger traffic and direct steamship lines from the Baltic States to Russian ports, it is announced, will be the principal results of the conference between the delegates to Soviet Russia, Finland, Latvia, Lithuania and Estonia, which closed here yesterday after a week's session.

Out of Poland.
Riga, Nov. 2.—A wireless dispatch received here announced that General Boris Savinkov, the Russian anti-Bolshevik leader, returned to Warsaw by aeroplane October 26 but again was expelled from the country October 28.

Some time ago it was announced that the Polish Government had promised to expel Savinkov and his followers on complaint of the Russian Government at Moscow, which charged that they were plotting against Russia, contrary to the terms of the Riga peace treaty.

Hostilities.
Riga, Nov. 2.—The Rosta News Agency attributes to the Russian Foreign Office a statement that several well-equipped forces of infantry, cavalry and machine gunners, numbering from 500 to 1,000, arrived from Poland on the Polish-Ukrainian frontier and invaded the Ukraine from October 25 to 29 and distributed arms among the population.

The movement was called a mobilization of the Ukrainian Republic, which had been proclaimed at Tarnow. The troops were repulsed by the Red Army, suffering many casualties.

Conference Notes.
London, Nov. 2.—The executive committee of the Third International has issued a declaration that the approaching Washington conference will not effect substantial disarmament or lasting peace, but only a new grouping of the powers and the sharpening of the opposing elements, says The Daily Herald.

This statement sets forth what it regards as the motives influencing the respective participants in the conference, all of them being represented as having motives of self-interest, says the newspaper. The aim of the Americans is declared to be new markets in the East and commercial prosperity in Europe, because the United States now finds Europe too poor to be her customer.

Great Britain's aspiration is declared to be the formation of a great Anglo-Saxon trust with its centre in America, while Japan's aim is said to be aggrandizement in East Asia. Great Britain, the newspaper asserts, is expected to encourage concessions to Japan in Siberia and to the United States in China, and if her efforts are successful "the conference will result in an English-American-Japanese alliance at the expense of Soviet Russia and China."

DANTE CELEBRATION.

Ravenna, Italy, Nov. 2.—The closing ceremony of the Dante celebrations was held here yesterday. Fragments of the poet's bones, stolen in 1855 and recovered shortly afterwards, were placed with the other parts of the skeleton buried here.

CIVIC SPIRIT AND CO-OPERATION
—MOST ESSENTIALSo Say Chamber of Commerce Speakers

The civic spirit and co-operation so essential to the success of any city was amply demonstrated at the huge gathering that attended the civic dinner given under the auspices of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce at the Dominion Hotel last evening.

J. H. Beatty, president of the Chamber, in his address, referred to the fact that his position was no sinecure. "Every man who enters civic service in Victoria virtually puts himself on the block. All those who have rendered community service during the past ten years stood no higher at the end of their term than they did at the beginning on account of that atmosphere which seemed to permeate the city."

Last night's gathering, however, was an augury of better things, high-spirited and better spirited and greater determination to put Victoria in the proud position to which she was rightfully entitled.

"There are some people in this city who do not want to see the Chamber of Commerce succeed. They do not want to see the City Council or any other organization succeed. The greatest spirit of co-operation exists between this Chamber and the City Council. If we can assist in converting the attitude of some people from that of thoughtless, ill-advised criticism to that of helpful suggestion, it will result in a good deal of success along constructive lines," said Mr. Beatty.

The Mayor's Praise.

Mayor Porter said he felt it his duty to express appreciation of the work of the Chamber of Commerce. "It has done more than any other organization to foster the community spirit, which in past years, has been so sadly lacking. They have been successful in a great degree and suggestions instead of criticism will do more to help the city's interests and the work of its public organizations. It is true we have a good many citizens inclined to be critical. They feel better after they get it out of their system but, unfortunately, criticism by uninformed people is dangerous and liable to become a bad habit."

"Even city council have their troubles trying to make one dollar do where two are needed," said the Mayor. "Perhaps the city had traveled too fast in its more prosperous days, but a safe policy was being followed and before long Victoria would be in a position second to none in the Dominion." His Worship said.

"Perhaps few of you are aware that to-day Victoria stands in Canada from a credit point of view. If the people will stand behind the City Council, the Chamber of Commerce and any public body, and give them their advice and assistance instead of standing aloof and criticizing, we can make our city much more prosperous than it is to-day," concluded His Worship.

The Chamber's Mission.

"It is not the material things the Chamber of Commerce does, but it is the building up of the right spirit in the community that counts," Lynn W. Mowat of the Canadian City Bureau, remarked in the course of an inspiring speech. "If the Victoria Chamber has not staged toward the accomplishment of its purpose in the past year then it is time to disband. If it has accomplished worth while things in that direction it is worth while to continue."

"Victoria's business and financial position is no worse than that of innumerable other cities throughout the world—in some of which business conditions are even poorer than here. The city is passing successfully through its business difficulties. Then there is no time like the present to prevent depreciation of the organization."

The speaker advocated the spirit where men can fight cleanly and hard, within their own organization if necessary, in open defence of what they think is right, but, when the next issue arises, all should unite in the good cause of the city's development. "Victoria is a city worth while fighting for," declared Mr. Mowat.

HOW SERVICE TAX
WOULD OPERATEHon. John Hart Writes to the Chamber of Commerce
Directors

Hon. John Hart, Minister of Finance, has written to the Chamber of Commerce directors, with regard to the service tax, as follows:—"In view of the demand made on the Government by municipalities for greater sources of revenue, in order to lighten the burden falling almost exclusively on the land, it has been suggested that the municipalities be authorized to collect a service tax based on stocks-in-trade. At the present time the Government collects a tax of 1 per cent. on stock and personal property, provided that the amount shown to be due exceeds the amount of income tax."

REPARATIONS WILL CAUSE THE ALLIED
COUNCIL TO MEET

Paris, Nov. 2.—It is regarded in French official circles as almost certain that the Allied Supreme Council will have to meet early in the coming year to take up the question of reparations as the result of the default of Germany, now expected in those circles, in the payment of the second billion gold marks on her reparations account.

SCHOOL POPULATION UP 23 PER CENT. IN FIVE YEARS

Doesn't Look if B. C. is Going Back, Says Dr. MacLean

Provincial Secretary Deals
With Some Bowser Attacks

"It does not look as if the population of British Columbia were falling off as alleged by opposition speakers when the school attendance of the Province has increased twenty-three per cent in the last five years," the Hon. J. D. MacLean, Provincial Secretary and Minister of Education, told the Legislature yesterday afternoon.

Dr. MacLean asserted that the fact that the House has been in session for two weeks and has not heard any criticism of the department of education and the other departments under him is a credit to the officials in charge of these departments.

The Minister then gave what he termed some of the "strong points" in B. C.'s educational system.

Highest Class Teachers.
"We have the best educated class of teachers in Canada," he said. "Thirty-six per cent of our teachers have had a college education in whole or in part. No other Province in Canada comes near that. In Nova Scotia, the next to B. C., the percentage is thirty-three, and in New Brunswick, the next, the percentage is thirty." "Then our school children attend school more regularly. Seventy-eight per cent of our enrollment attend school every day in the year. The next closest is Quebec with seventy-five per cent, while the average for the whole of Canada is sixty-seven per cent. No Province in Canada sends so many of its elementary school children to high school as B. C."

Give Correspondence Course.
Dr. MacLean also pointed out that B. C. is second in Canada in manual training and fourth in technical training. There are 4,000 pupils receiving instruction in twenty-six subjects in night schools throughout the Province.

"The next development of our educational system is to be along the lines of our night schools," Dr. MacLean went on.

"The Department of Education also conducts a correspondence department for children in outlying parts where there are not enough pupils to form a school. In this the pupils get free text books and their work is sent into the Department once a week. No other Province has this and I don't think any part of the Empire."

Capital Assets Grow.
Dr. MacLean explained that the Department keeps schools open in districts which can maintain an average of six pupils and the Department pays the whole salary of the teacher. These figures show that compared with 1916-17, the Province has made a net gain of nearly $6,000,000 in excess of capital assets over capital liabilities.

No Extra Session.
Dr. MacLean replied to Mr. Bowser's attack on the Government for holding an extra session this year by saying: "We will not have an extra session. This session is not an extra session and there is no need of an extra session in this Legislative term. We are just going to hold five sessions during the five years of this Legislature."

Other Special Warrants.
Replying to the Bowser attack on the special warrant for the Campbell warehouse purchase, Dr. MacLean declared that it was not fair to take, as he said, Mr. Bowser had done, isolated instances, but totals should be quoted as given in the public accounts. These figures show that compared with 1916-17, the Province has made a net gain of nearly $6,000,000 in excess of capital assets over capital liabilities.

Commissioner's Own Party.
As for Commissioner Gillespie's banquet at the Terminal City Club which was charged up to the tax-payers of South Vancouver, Dr. MacLean said that the commissioner was in the position of a municipal council and any municipal council could give a banquet if it wished. He made it clear, however, that he was not suggesting that banquets at the present time should be encouraged.

"The impression sought to be conveyed by the Leader of the Opposition was that this Government would have to foot the bill," Dr. MacLean went on. "This is not so as every dollar of the expenses will have to be paid by the citizens of South Vancouver."

In this connection Dr. MacLean recalled the days of 1871 when he said there was dissatisfaction in the ranks of the road superintendents among the Government's supporters and the Government of which Mr. Bowser was a member to placate these men brought them all to Victoria, rented a hall, placed a street car at their disposal and gave them a big banquet for which the taxpayers of the Province paid.

THE ENGINE'S EARS
Mr. Smith was a commercial traveler, and only came home at long intervals. On one of these he was telling his five-year-old son all about his wanderings. "And then I came home," he finished.

"And did you come home in a train, daddy?" asked Johnny.

"Yes, sonny."

"And did you see the ears of the engine?"

"Of course not!" laughed daddy.

"Engine don't have ears."

"Oh, yes, they do!" persisted the small boy.

"Haven't you ever heard of the engineers, daddy?"—Tit-Bits.

URGE TAXATION OF CHURCH SITES HERE

City Asks Legislature to Remove Exemption

A formal request that the Provincial Legislature allow British Columbia cities to tax church sites has been forwarded to the Municipal Committee of the House by City Solicitor H. S. Pringle.

Mr. Pringle's letter to the Municipal Committee explains that the cities are prevented from taxing church sites by a recent judgment of the Privy Council and points out that the Union of British Columbia Municipalities has recorded its disapproval of this exemption. The other cities of the Province, it is stated, are behind Victoria in the fight against tax exemption for church sites.

Mr. Pringle suggests that, if the Legislature cannot remove tax exemption from church sites, it should at least make clear exactly what a church site is. Such a ruling would do away with the confusion which is worrying the city now in its efforts to levy taxes on church lands according to the Privy Council's ruling.

Mr. Pringle will write to the Municipal Committee within a few days to urge the amalgamation of British Columbia City Councils, school boards and police commissions. This plan also has been endorsed by the Union of Municipalities.

Oriental labor at a considerably lower rate of pay. I am told as low as 20 cents per hour. I do not think that the member would suggest that the Board should have purchased lumber cut by Orientals as against the Erskin & May timber, no matter how the price compared.

"I may say that when the Erskin & May mills started, a large order was given to them at a price more favorable than could be gotten outside. This was to their advantage by reason of the size of the order, also to the advantage of the settlers, but before the order was completed the general drop in lumber values put the market advantage the other way, and from the settlers' point of view I think it seems hardly fair that their loyalty to their own people is a matter of only a few dollars per thousand on the price of lumber, particularly when this lumber was supplied to settlers under the Progress Loan, there being no interest charge for two years, no payment of principal required for five years, and a twenty-five year term in make payment in full.

How Allotments Were Made.
With reference to the allotments to settlers, after I received the report of the returned men who joined up in British Columbia are allowed a right of $500 on the part of the Government, and the returned men receive sixty acres of unimproved land at a net cost to themselves of $100, with the understanding that the Land Settlement Board would build a house to suit their requirements which would be chargeable against the property, would be prepared to make advances from time to time under a Progress Loan system or improvement system they would carry out on their own places, also to provide them with stock and equipment according to their capacity to look after them on the same terms.

Advances Cut Off.
"But the result has been that from the Summer of 1920, when this was put in force to this past Summer, some of the settlers have had advances against their property up to what we consider a market value and the superintendent had instructions not to go beyond that point. Immediately the advances were cut off there were protests and letters to the newspapers and so on, as to the harsh treatment meted out by the Land Settlement Board.

"I attended a general meeting of the settlers a few months ago and pointed out to them that we had no authority for spending the public money for value received. That if it was a matter of charity, it would have to be dealt with through some other body than the Land Settlement Board, but for those who evidently were not shaping in a way that would ensure their making good, we were prepared to get them established in some other industry in which they would fit in."

Committee Investigates.
As a result of the discussion Mr. Barrow said he appointed a committee to investigate actual conditions and to recommend some practical way in which further assistance where required might be given, keeping in mind the fact that the Land Settlement Board is not a charitable organization. The committee appointed was J. C. Rogers, representing the settlers; Col. W. S. Latta, representing the Land Settlement Board, and Thomas Menzies, M.P.P., of Comox. "It is gratifying to know that the settlers, as a result of their experience, are beginning to recognize the importance of not adding a dollar more to their liability than they can help," Mr. Barrow went on.

Road Work Promised.
"The committee recommended that road work be provided this Winter to help out, as a number of settlers are badly in need of better roads leading to their places. This has been agreed to, and appropriation made for that work."

"When asked by one of the members of the committee what I thought of the report, I said I was expecting their recommendation that some of those who were not making good should be found work in some other line and taken out of the settlement. But I was informed that if such a suggestion was made to any of the settlers they immediately went up in the air, and would not listen to such a proposal."

Most Men Making Good.
"I would also point out the fact that the big majority of the settlers are making good, and we are prepared to back those men to the limit. I may also say that about 25 per cent of the settlers have never borrowed a cent from the Government, having a little money of their own that they had when they came to the settlement, and with others, what they saved when they were on the payroll, and have been using it in the improvement of their places."

Punctures Creston Talk.
"With regard to the criticisms of the honorable member from Kaslo in regard to the Soldier Settlement at Creston, I consider this is most unfair, and he is evidently desirous of leaving an impression that is not in accordance with the facts. He stated that land is being sold to civilians nearer transportation at $30 per acre unimproved, while the soldier settlers are being charged $50."

"Facts: Unimproved land has been allotted to returned soldiers in the area from $30 to $55.25 per acre. Prices sold to civilians along the main road toward Canyon and Grickson range from $50 per acre for land that is cut up by ravines or with some small crop, up to $57.50 per acre for lots with practically no value. Certain lots adjacent to mountain-side or composed of deep ravines and high banks, as along the Goat River, are suitable for pasture only, are priced as low as $10 to $30 per acre, and as a comparison of the conditions of sale as to transportation to civilians and soldier settlers."

Comparative Terms.
"In the case of civilians, residence must be established within one year, whereas soldier settlers are already established, and it is required of civilians that two acres a year for five years must be cleared before title will be passed, but in the case of soldier settlers this is not required. A cash payment of 20 per cent, on execution of agreement is called for from civilians, but not from overseas settlers. The balance payable by civilians is spread over fifteen years, while soldier payments are extended over a term of twenty-five years.

"Interest payments by civilians commence at the time of execution of the agreement, whereas soldiers are granted three years without interest. The first payment of principal is due and payable by a civilian in one year from date of purchase, but five years are granted the soldier for his first payment."

What Investigations Show.
"A set of resolutions passed by the Settlers Committee were dealt with by myself and Col. Davies, chairman of the Land Settlement Board, when we visited the area some few months ago. In connection with the saw mill it was found that by putting it in charge of a thoroughly competent mill man who was given authority to introduce certain labor-saving devices and the power to fire any men who were not suitable, that the output was doubled.

"Objection was also raised by the settlers for the letting of a contract for logging to one Hicky, and that this man Hicky is employing other returned men in his logging operations. My information is that the cost of logging as carried out by the settlers had reached a point beyond what was reasonable, and Hicky took the job at approximately half the figure it was costing under the other system."

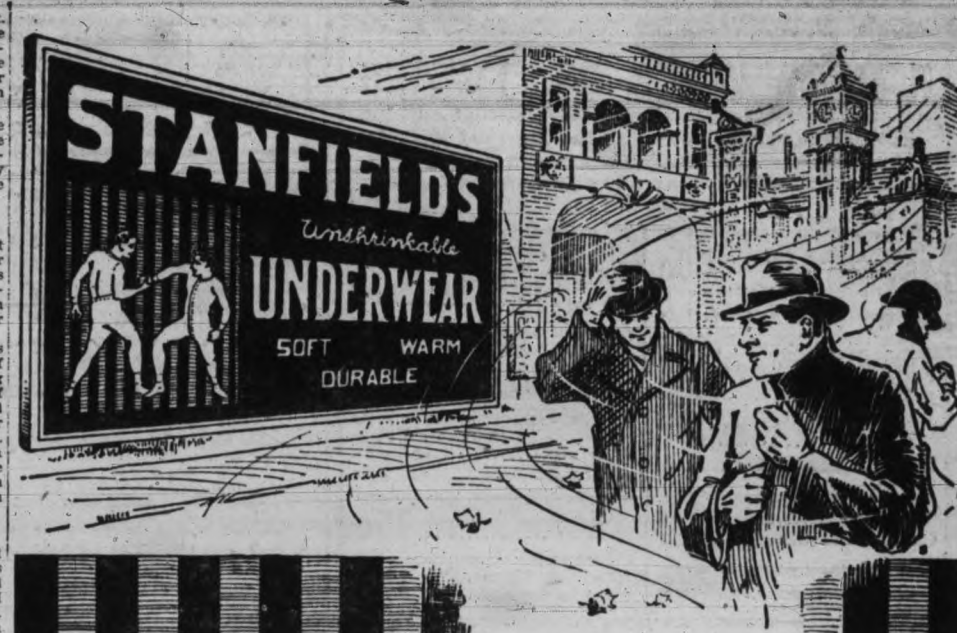

Col. Lister's Objections.
"I also notice in the report of the member for Kaslo's speech that he was willing to admit that about the only complaint that the returned soldiers at Camp Lister had was the charge of seven per cent on loans, and claims that they were promised money at five per cent, also that no one settler had a scratch of a pen to show he has any right to his allotment."

"The reason for that is that apparently the settlers had been advised not to sign the agreement, unless they can get the rate of loans fixed at five per cent. I discussed this matter with the committee three or four months ago and pointed out that no such promise had been made by the Board. That it would be out of order to make them any such concession without it was general with our operations in the Province where we are settling returned soldiers."

No Five Per cent. Promises.
"I was informed by the chairman of the committee that they were going to make an issue out of that, and would bring it up on the floor of the House if necessary, which they evidently have done through their representative. I have a full report in connection with their claim from Col. Latta, who was one of the original 'Asia' committee, and has looked through all files of correspondence connected with the establishment of the Lister Settlement, and that the first hint received by the Land Settlement Board that the rate of interest was about to become an issue, was contained in the copy of a resolution passed by the Settlers Committee at Camp Lister, Development Area No. 2, and dated January 30, 1921."

"The statement contained was that settlers were definitely promised their loans at the rate of five per cent by the several members of the Land Settlement Board and that their accredited representatives is not in accordance with the facts, and as far as I am concerned, personally I am prepared to give an unqualified denial to it, on or off it, if necessary."

"That, apparently is the reason the settlers have not signed their agreements of sale, and the superintendent has been invited not to make further cash advances to the settlers for the purchase of stock and equipment unless they assumed some responsibility. They have all steady employ-

Your state of health largely depends upon the food you eat

No one who is physically ailing in any way can afford to take chances with the food he eats. For upon the selection of your food, and upon its perfect digestion and assimilation largely depends your state of health.

The most important thing in connection with the digestibility of any cereal food is the way it is prepared—and the length of time it is cooked or baked.

Grape-Nuts, the rich cereal food made from whole wheat flour and malted barley, is probably baked longer than any other cereal food.

A large part of the starch of the wheat and barley is changed into dextrin and grape-sugar in preparing Grape-Nuts. This is one reason why Grape-Nuts is so easily digested by even the most delicate people.

Grape-Nuts is wheat and barley so processed as to make it delicious and appetizing; even young children thrive on it and grow strong and rosy.

Go to your grocer today and get a package of Grape-Nuts. Eat it as a cereal with milk or cream, or make it into a delicious pudding. It will be enjoyed and relished by every member of the family.

buy young dairy stock when the Winter is over, ship them up to those areas, and in the Fall distribute them among settlers, according to their ability to purchase and capacity for feeding during the Winter. These animals will freshen the following Spring, and is the most simple and economic method of increasing the dairy industry in that part of the Province.

Mr. Barrow said that photographs and lantern slides showing the kind of clearing, the amount of clearing that has been accomplished by settlers in one and two years, had been taken to give prospective settlers a better idea of the country than can be conveyed in words. A set will be sent to the Board of Agriculture in Scotland in compliance with a promise made to two Scottish farmers representing the Board, and who called in at his office a short time ago looking up possibilities for settlement.

Merville soldier settlement has a total area of 13,890 acres, so Mr. Barrow informs J. W. Jones. So far 887 acres have been cleared. The original cost of the land was $69,699 and the undertaking to date has cost the Land Settlement Board $496,231. The Lister settlement near Creston contains 5,967 acres, with 432 acres cleared. The purchase price of the land was $188,225 and up to October 1 the sum of $358,405 had been spent.

FOR CHILDREN THE SANDMAN STORY FOR TO-NIGHT

GRANDDADDY LONGLEGS

Once upon a time an Elf Prince fell in love with a fairy, and the Queen of the fairies gave her consent to their marriage.

All the magic folk were invited, and to make the wedding more beautiful all the butterflies were invited also.

Now, it happened that one large blue and black butterfly had once been a Goblin, but an old witch to reward him for some favor he had done gave him the power to change his form whenever he liked.

The Elf Prince and the Goblins were always in a dispute, and never had been friends, so when the Blue Butterfly Goble heard of the wedding he at once determined to go and make all the trouble he could.

The Elf Prince had one friend among the Elves, and that was a very fond Goble, and while the wedding was taking place Tanto—that was the name of the friend—noticed a bit of red showing under the wing of the blue butterfly. He crept close and found it was a bit of the Goble's red cap that he saw, for, of course, no Goble, whatever his form, ever is without his cap.

Tanto knew that some mischief was going on, so he watched every move the Blue Butterfly made, and just as the wedding was over he saw him slip his cap from under his wing and become a Goble, and before any one could stop him he had the fairy bride in his arms and was running away.

The Elf Prince ran with Tanto and told him the Goble had called to his friends, and the Prince was made a prisoner by the little red-capped men.

He found a hundred of these Goblins kept the other magic folk back, and the Fairy Queen, who had left her magic wand at home, was unable to help them.

But there was one who had escaped from the Goblins and was after the runaway, and that was Tanto. With all his bounds he was soon up with the Goble and the stolen bride, and when he came to a tree that had overhanging branches he caught at one and swung himself so he could snatch the red cap from the Goble's head as he passed.

Quickly dropping the stolen bride, Tanto put both hands to his head, but it was too late. His cap had gone, and with it the power the witch had given him.

He took the cap on his own head and making the Goble prisoner he took him back to the edge of the woods and tied him to a twig.

He told the fairy to follow, but to hide until he called to her to show herself to her husband. Then Tanto crept up behind the captive and slipped the cap into his hand.

The Prince knew at once what to do and while his captors were busy chattering he put the cap on his head and called to the witch to appear.

Up from the ground slowly came the witch, saying, "Who stole my bride?" and the Elf Prince told her, and when the Goble was brought the Prince commanded the witch to change him into a toad, a leagled creature that would always be on the run whenever any one came near.

The witch did not dare disobey, for the Elf Prince had the red cap upon which she had cast the magic spell, and she feared that he might work harm to her.

When she was of her magic stick the Goble disappeared, and over the ground ran a long-legged creature that is now called granddaddy longlegs. Then the Prince called for his bride and the wedding feast went on, while the Goblins, who now were terribly frightened, ran away in all directions.

The Prince flung after the long-legged creature the red cap, which changed into a toad when he stepped on it, and quickly hopped out of sight.

CHILD SOCIALISM AS AN ANTIDOTE TO UNEMPLOYMENT

Rev. R. Connell Gives Address Before Women's Canadian Club

"The old 'supply and demand' economics are on the shelf—a just settlement of the problem of distribution and an effort to increase the purchasing power of individuals so as to absorb our productions, is needed to solve the world-condition of unemployment," according to the Rev. Robert Connell, who gave a thoughtful address before the Women's Canadian Club yesterday afternoon.

A Vanished Utopia. Announcing his subject as "Where is the promise of a new world?" Mr. Connell touched upon the efforts made by man ever since the beginning of history to bring about a Utopian condition which would ensure human peace, human prosperity and human happiness, and his failure to secure that Utopia. In the period anterior to the great war there had been prevalent conditions which roused a spirit of optimism. This spirit had, with its recrudescence during the war, when the press and public speakers extolled the idea that never again would there be unemployment or misery; it was to be a war to end all wars. Yet the armistice found a return of the old pre-war conditions and thoughtful men cognizant of the signs of the times are sounding the warning of the imminence of another war, more bloody and terrible than the last.

More Production Fallacy. One of the great solutions for unemployment often put forward as a panacea for all ills was that of more production. Yet it must be realized that this was a fallacy, for at a time when warehouses were filled to overflowing with goods outside there are men women and children dying of starvation. Under the present system production in itself was not sufficient, argued the speaker. Apparently the only way out of this condition of overflowing warehouses and fewer consumers was either the warehouses faced bankruptcy owing to depreciation, or they clamored for foreign markets. This search for foreign markets led to quarrelling among the nations and ultimately to war.

Wars For Foreign Markets. "Our modern wars are wars for foreign markets. The ruling classes are so skilful in camouflaging this particular business that the fight for the markets involved in a different aspect. So appeal is made to race hatred, national jealousy or in some cases, to very fine ideals, but the end is the same—only produce the two old cries of many years past, Free Trade versus Protection, neither of which showed laboring men or business men a way out of their difficulties.

Primary Right or Subsistence. "Nothing is more pathetic than the sight of large bodies of men in Victoria seeking for employment. Johnson Street bridge is a witness to them. Our great problem is not so much to find work for them as to find food, clothing and shelter for them. That is the primary right of every human being.

The increasing tendency to replace human energy by machine power requiring very little skill in its guidance was adding to the unemployment problem. The speaker declared that one of the solutions was to increase the purchasing power of individuals so as to absorb production, and one of the first essentials to this end was the establishment of a fair and equitable price for commodities. (Applause.)

Power of Money. Mr. Connell quoted at some length from Major Douglas's books on political economy arguing that real capital is the inherent property of the community, and that financial credit belongs to the community, inasmuch as real capital means not the money

ESQUIMALT TURNS OUT IN FORCE TO MEET C. H. DICKIE

Meighen Party Candidate
Given Welcome at Rex
Theatre

The Rex Theatre was nearly filled last night when Esquimalt turned out in force to meet C. H. Dickie, the National Liberal and Conservative candidate for the honor of representing Nanaimo constituency in the Federal Parliament.

R. H. Pooley, M.P.P., acted as chairman, and opened the meeting with a welcome to the large number of ladies present. He introduced Mr. Dickie to the audience amid prolonged applause, as a man who had lived many years in the Nanaimo constituency.

"As a mining man he has at times been connected with both paying and unsuccessful ventures. Naturally many people have lost money in some of which they have been associated with Mr. Dickie, yet, strange to say, those people are the ones who have been most sincere and ardent in their support of our candidate. No man can be tendered a more valuable tribute to his character," he said.

Still Union Government.
"The Meighen Government is practically the same as the Union Government, and I do not think the Esquimalt district can do other than support that Government."

"I do not think that any district has been more favored. We have the drydock; it is true that some men have been said off recently, but I understand that to be due to the contractor having made some misce with the cofferdam, and needs time to look around."

"The drydock was not by any means an election ploy. You all know how long we have waited for the fulfillment of this longstanding promise. We now see it underway, and there can be no doubt but that Esquimalt will support the Government which so well deserves all promises made in good faith by predecessors in office."

Mr. Dickie said as a supporter of the Meighen Government he would do his best if returned to Ottawa. Adverting to war expenditures, he said he noted that it would be unnatural if expenditure of uncounted millions did not show cases of recklessness, but the honesty of purpose was undoubted and the Government's aim had been solely to win the war.

Praise for Leader.
"That Hon. Mr. Meighen was one of the most brilliant Canadians since Sir John Macdonald, and that he was an outspoken advocate of protecting Canadian industry and labor at all times, were asserted by Mr. Dickie, who declared the Liberal chief, on the other hand, appeared to be one who sought to be 'all things to all men,' so much so that many Liberals were refusing to follow him and supporting the Meighen party, the candidate asserts."

THE STORY OF CAROL KENNICOTT

By SINCLAIR LEWIS

"Yump, and he's the undertaker. You'll like him. Come shake hands with him."

"Oh no, no! He doesn't—he doesn't do the embalming and all that—himself? I couldn't shake hands with an undertaker!"

"Why not? You'd be proud to shake hands with a great surgeon, just after he'd been carving up people's bellies."

She sought to regain her afternoon's calm of maturity. "Yes, you're right. I want—oh, my dear, do you know how much I want to like the people you like? I want to see people as they are."

"Well, don't forget to see people as other folks see them as they are! They have the stuff. Did you know that Percy Bresnahan came from here? Born and brought up here!"

"Bresnahan?"

"Yes—you know—president of the Velvet Motor Company, of Boston. He's a millionaire, several times over! Well, Percy comes back here for the black-bass fishing almost every summer, and he says if he could get away from business, he'd rather live here than in Boston or New York or any of those places. He doesn't mind the undertaking, like everybody else."

"Please! I'll—I'll be the community sunbeam!"

He led her to the Dawsons.

Luke Dawson, lender of money on mortgages, owner of Northern cut-over land, was a hesitant man in unpressed soft gray clothes, with bulging eyes in a milky face. His wife had bleached cheeks, bleached hair, bleached voice, and a bleached manner. She wore her expensive green frock with its passementerie bosom, brock tassels, and gaps between the buttons down the back, as though she had bought it second-hand, and was afraid of meeting the former owner. They were shy. It was "Professor" George Edwin Mott, superintendent of schools, a Chinese man, who turned brown, who held Carol's hand and made her welcome.

When the Dawsons and Mr. Mott had stated that they were "pleased to meet her," there seemed to be nothing else to say, but the conversation went on automatically.

"Do you like Gopher Prairie?" whispered Mrs. Dawson.

"Oh, I'm sure I'm going to be ever so happy."

"There's so many nice people," Mrs. Dawson looked to Mr. Mott for social and intellectual aid. He lectured.

"There's a fine class of people. I don't like some of these retired farmers who come here to spend their last days—especially the Germans. They have to pay school-taxes. They hate to spend a cent. But the rest are a fine class of people. Did you know that Percy Bresnahan came from here? Used to go to school right at the old building."

"I heard he did."

"Yes, he's a prince. He and I went fishing together, last time he was here."

The Dawsons and Mr. Mott teetered upon weary feet, and smiled at Carol with crystallized expressions. She went on.

"Tell me, Mr. Mott: Have you ever tried any experiments with any of the new educational systems? The modern kindergarten methods or the 'Case System'?"

"Oh, those. Most of these would-be reformers are simply notoriety-seekers. I believe in manual training, but Latin and mathematics always will be the backbone of sound education, no matter what these faddists advocate—heaven knows what they do want—knitting. I suppose, and classes in wiggling the ears."

The Dawsons smiled their appreciation of listening to a savant. Carol waited till Kennicott should rescue her. The rest of the party waited for the miracle of evening amusements.

Harry and Jaunita Haydock, Rita Simons and Dr. Terry Gould—the young smart set of Gopher Prairie. She was led to them. Jaunita Haydock flung at her in a high, cackling, friendly voice:

"Well, this is so nice to have you here. We'll have some good parties, dances and everything. You'll have to join the Jolly Seventeen. We play bridge and we have a supper once a month. You play, of course?"

"N-no, I don't."

"I've always been such a book-worm."

"We'll have to teach you. Bridge is half the fun of life. Jaunita had become patronizing, and she glanced disrespectfully at Carol's golden sash, which she had previously admired.

Harry Haydock said politely, "How do you think you're going to like the old burg?"

"I'm sure I shall like it tremendously."

"Real people on earth here. Great bustlers, too. Course I've had lots of chances to go live in Minneapolis, but we like it here. Real he-town."

Charges Vaccination.

Mr. Miller touched upon the varied tints which he said marked the tariff coalition of the Liberal party, stating that Quebec, Ontario and Prairie Provinces each were served with policy deemed suited to its taste, although the Pacific coast, free trade on the prairies could not both be carried out. "Which will you support, vaccinating Mr. King or clear cut Mr. Meighen?" he asked.

Mr. Miller said the tariff was less to-day than under the Liberals, and was merely calculated to be enough to keep Canada's young men at home and in employment at a comfortable living wage. "What is the use of raising a bushel of wheat on a farm if there is none to whom to sell it?" he said.

Appeals to Patriots.

"The policy which Mr. Meighen is carrying out is absolutely necessary for the existence of Canada, and also to its continuance in the British Empire," he said, declaring that ex-President Taft, and the late Speaker Champ Clark of the United States, had both declared that the absorption of Canada into the United States, "if you have the same spirit of loyalty that you have possessed at the last election, I appeal to you to support Mr. Dickie, for the issues are as serious to-day as they were then," said Mr. Miller in closing.

Chairman Pooley then noted that it was incredible for a district which so strongly supported conscription as had Esquimalt when it favored Mr. McIntosh, could to-day make such a volte face as to support Mr. Maclean King.

From the floor of the hall a motion recording has been started, the fullest confidence in Mr. Dickie was tendered, and passed. An appeal for organization assistance was then made.

DAMAGE ACTION

IS DISMISSED

Special Jury in Supreme Court
Finds Verdict for Defendant

The action of Herman versus Ribbet Consolidated, Ltd., was dismissed in the Supreme Court yesterday by Mr. Justice Morrison, on the finding of the special jury empanelled to hear the cause. The action was by J. C. Herman for damages placed at $2,500, alleged to have been received when he met with an accident in which one of the Ribbet vehicles was concerned. The accident took place at the corner of Government and Belleville Streets in May, Mr. Herman being removed to St. Joseph's Hospital. H. A. MacLean, K.C., appeared for the plaintiff, with A. D. Macfarlane for the defendant. Evidence for the plaintiff was given by Mr. Herman, James H. Young, Dr. George Hall, and others. Dr. James F. Grant, Francis O. Driver, Arthur W. Thoburn, and others gave evidence on behalf of the defendant.

The special jury of eight returned a verdict for the defendant after half an hour's deliberation. The jury included Messrs. H. Patterson (foreman), William Thwaites, William Gird, Frederick C. Nivison, Charles J. Cary, Harold M. Diggon, Harold M. Lewis, and Henry Littlefield.

APPELLANT MUST

SERVE TERM FOR LIQUOR OFFENSE

The appeal of John Ferguson in the County Court, which has occupied the past three days, closed yesterday with a verdict against the appellant, who was appealing from a police court conviction and a sentence of six months' imprisonment. Ferguson, who attended the trial on bail, was taken into custody again at the conclusion of the trial, and will have to serve his term, unless a further appeal is granted.

R. C. Lowe appeared for the appellant, and in the three days past advanced a large number of reasons for the case of the appellant. C. L. Harrison appeared for the Crown, and was sustained in his argument. Evidence on both sides was extensive, including the evidence of Chief Fry, Alfred Hallam, clerk of the city police court; Special Constable H. E. Craig, and Special Constable Charles E. Brown. The last two testified that they had entered the premises of the accused at the Gordon Hotel in August last, and had purchased a drink of beer and some whisky.

R. C. Lowe roundly criticized the actions of the two special constables, whom he referred to as "stool pigeons." He said that the evidence did not depend upon the oral evidence of the witnesses, but upon the large quantity of liquor found, carried certain inferences, as well as the number of men frequenting the place.

The appeal was dismissed.

Hallowe'en
ENTERTAINMENT
AT ROYAL OAK

A grand Hallowe'en entertainment was given in the Royal Oak Hall on Saturday night under the auspices of the St. Michael's Canadian Girls in Training, assisted by members of the Victoria Dramatic Society and other friends from Victoria. The hall was tastefully decorated for the occasion with evergreens and Hallowe'en favors, and presented a very pleasing appearance.

An ice cream booth, presided over by Evelyn Cummins and Mary Allison, representing ghosts, candy stall in the charge of Irene Barker and Ellen East, and a table under the care of Margaret Cotton and Lorna Raven, where the birthday cake was on sale, proved very popular and did a thriving business in the intervals of the concert.

Audrey Cotton, in witch's costume, was in charge at the door, assisted by Miss K. Butt.

The first item on the programme was a general hunt for the witches' black cat, pieces of which were hidden in various parts of the hall, the prize going to Mrs. Ashton, who succeeded in finding the largest number of pieces.

Miss Flora Musgrave opened the concert with a pianoforte solo, followed by Miss Audrey Cotton with a humorous recitation. The programme included songs by Miss E. Messer and P. Hughes; violin solos by Miss May Brogan, a talented young musician; pianoforte solo by Miss Malone; recitation by Mr. Hughes; monologue by Norman Bue, who literally brought down the house with his clever impersonations, and a very charming little play, entitled "St. Martin's Summer," by Capt. and Mrs. Berrill and Miss Butler.

The members of the G. G. I. T. gave their famous Yell in place of the demonstration of a mid-week meeting announced on the programme. After the singing of the National Anthem refreshments were served by Florence Young, Flora and Jean Musgrave, the refreshment committee, assisted by the Raven-boys. Rev. A. Nixon acted as chairman, and in his address of welcome explained that the proceeds of the entertainment were for the much needed parish hall, the great object for which the girls are working so enthusiastically, and for which they have made themselves responsible. The sum of $50.50 was added to the fund, which now stands at approximately $560.

The G. G. I. T. members and leaders take the opportunity of thanking all who helped to make the affair such a success in every way, special thanks being extended to Miss Chatter and the members of the Dramatic Society, Capt. and Mrs. Berrill and their friends, Miss Brogan and Miss Malone, all of whom added so greatly to the enjoyment of the evening; to Rev. A. Nixon, to Mr. Davenport and Mr. Thorne for the use of their cars; to Miss Little, to Mrs. Young for hospitality, and Mr. Young for decorating and help in many ways.

Vancouver Citizen Says He Eats, Sleeps and Works
Better Than in Years

"I am like a new man these days, eating, sleeping and working better than I have in years," said J. Colgan, 3943 Pender Street, East, Vancouver, B. C.

"My stomach began troubling me just before I was mustered out of the army last year and ever since then I have been bothered with indigestion after every meal. I had awful spells of palpitation of the heart at times, and often felt as if I was about to smother, and my back hurt me so I could hardly bend over."

"Tanlac put me on the road to health in a short time. My stomach is in first-class condition now, and I have gained thirty pounds in weight. I am just like a new man, and feel fine all the time."

APPEAL OF "POPPY" LADY OF FRANCE"

Local Delegate Describes
Scene at G.W.V.A.
Convention

In connection with the sale of poppies arranged by the G. W. V. A. for the commemoration of Armistice Day, a local member who attended the recent national convention of the Association thus describes the appeal made by a Frenchwoman who originated the idea.

"The Poppy Lady of France was an honored guest of the G. W. V. A. Convention. Her eloquent address on the subject of Poppy Day was an inspiration to all who had the pleasure of hearing it. The unhappy position of the people in the devastated areas of her beloved France was portrayed in forceful and convincing language. Her voice was tremulous with emotion as she thanked the returned men of Canada for their past help in saving France from the German yoke, and for their present help in assisting her country to make good the ravages to concentrate upon Poppy Day as a means of honoring the dead and helping the living. The poppies which would be placed on every Canadian grave in France she declared was a symbol of lasting remembrance of the women and children of stricken France to whom five per cent of the proceeds of the sale went."

POSTPONE MUSICAL FESTIVAL

It is altogether unfortunate that it has been necessary to change the date of the New Westminster Musical Festival, owing to the Dominion general election being fixed for December 6 next. But the festival committee felt that the proximity of this important political event to December 1 and 2, which was the date originally decided upon when the arrangements in connection with the festival were made in the Spring, would be likely to interfere with the latter occasion, and accordingly decided to defer the competitions and concert until January 19 and 20. Those entries already received have been recorded in due order and these entrants will not in any way be prejudiced, though the extra fee to December 23. The festival secretary is Mr. P. T. C. Wickett, A.R.C.O., 610 Fifth Avenue, New Westminster.

PERSONAL PROPERTY
TAX DISCUSSED

Chamber of Commerce Expresses Opinion
How Tax Would Operate on Average Business House

That the personal property tax was a vicious piece of taxation, and should be abolished, was the consensus of opinion of the speakers who took part in the Chamber of Commerce discussion following the civic dinner given at the Dominion Hotel last night, but when it came to a vote on the resolution opposing the imposition of the tax, the majority of the speakers present did not vote on the question.

In order to dispose of the matter expeditiously, the committee appointed to report on the matter of taxation brought in two resolutions, one opposing the personal property tax and the other supporting it. J. W. Spencer was chosen to speak for the former, and J. O. Cameron, the latter. The matter was discussed freely.

Opinion on Tax Divided.
A resolution was moved by D. S. Tait and seconded by James Parfitt, and carried 35 to 12, many not voting on the question.

"Resolved, that this Chamber of Commerce, while accepting and insisting upon the necessity of additional sources of revenue being given to the cities, urges that the proposed personal property tax is objectionable in principle and that it would be preferable to give to the cities a portion of the Income Tax, and that to save collection expense, the same should be collected through the present collection agencies of the Provincial Government and handed over to the cities."

It was explained that the wholesalers and retailers had already gone on record as opposed to the personal property tax. The Vancouver Board of Trade and the Victoria City Council had taken the same stand. Hon. John Hart had also signified his belief that the tax was out of place under normal conditions.

Mr. Spencer said that the proposed tax would only serve to duplicate the machinery necessary to collect taxes. His original motion was that the collection of the personal property tax be opposed, and that it certainly should not in any event be left to the cities to collect.

The proposed personal one per cent. personal property tax would prove a hindrance to probable investors and would shut out new industries, he pointed out. The cities did not need the money this tax would give. It was estimated that Vancouver, for instance, would get $3,000,000 from it. Victoria should rely on her assets for what money she needed, her property, reverted lands—give it away if necessary to make

DIFFERENCE IN PAY IN CANADIAN AND AMERICAN COASTWISE

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 2.—Announcement that the Canadian Merchant Marine had granted an increase of pay to the men on its ships in the Pacific coastwise service has aroused widespread interest in American maritime circles. The new wage scale, which will take effect October 15, grants increases ranging from 12 1/2 to 20 per cent, but even with these increases its rates of pay remain approximately one per cent lower than the wages prevailing on American vessels of corresponding tonnage, according to data assembled by American operators. FIFTH ANNIVERSARY
OF ADMIRAL LINE

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 2.—The fifth anniversary of the Admiral Line, a combination of the interests of the historic Pacific Coast Steamship company and the Pacific Alaska Navigation company, was marked yesterday by receipt of numerous congratulatory messages addressed to the president, Hubbard F. Alexander. Several of the messages, from veteran admirers, recalled that Mr. Alexander started as a dock laborer at fourteen years of age, and to-day, at forty-two, directs the operations of the largest fleet of vessels flying the American flag on the Pacific Ocean.

The Admiral Line was a conception created by Mr. Alexander in 1912, following the merger of two Alaska steamship companies. But it is known to-day as a consolidation of the Alexander lines and the old Pacific Coast company—it is only five years old.

It was incorporated as the Pacific Steamship company in October, 1916, and its house flag, four stars on a field of blue, surmounted by a red cross, was first flown November 1 of the same year. Then the combined fleet comprised twelve vessels of all classes, serving four shoring and the service has been expanded to include the Orient and the ports of Great Britain and continental Europe.

Mr. Alexander abandoned a prospective college career in 1913 to go on the docks at Tacoma, Wash. Six years later, when he was twenty years old, he became president of a dock company. At twenty-eight, he was promoted to the position of general manager of the Alaska trade, and in 1912 he adopted the trade name of Admiral Line, four years before the combination which resulted in the absorption of the Pacific Coast Steamship company.

The latter company dates back to the era of the Argonauts in California. It grew out of the organization by the firm of Goodall, Perkins and Nelson of a fleet of water boats in 1850, and the sailing ships crowded into San Francisco Bay loaded with gold seekers.

Its history from that period until the merger of 1916 was virtually the history of American merchant marine on the Pacific Coast.

HERO OF VALENCIA
WRECK GETS SHIP

Capt. M. F. Tarpey to Command SS. Bay State in Oriental Trade

Capt. Martin F. Tarpey, hero of the Valencia wreck, and more recently port captain of the Admiral Line at Seattle, has been appointed to the command of the latest addition to the Admiral Line trans-Pacific fleet, the S.S. Bay State, and has left for New York to take over his new ship. Capt. Tarpey is a comparatively young man, but ever since the terrible Valencia disaster in 1905, his name has stood high in maritime annals. When the Valencia was wrecked, the west coast of Vancouver Island, she was 167 sea miles from shore, and 167 sea miles from shore.

Of the 26 survivors, five escaped in a boat that was driven ashore. Three others were washed ashore by the waves. Capt. Tarpey, then a young quartermaster, was instrumental in saving the rest of the survivors, numbering 18, by cool and daring work, getting them away from the ship on a life raft. The shipping world rang with his name. Capt. Tarpey first went to sea when 17 years of age, shipping out of Philadelphia in a sailing ship. In 1909 he came out to the Pacific coast, and for three years served in the Canadian Pacific fleet. In 1903 he joined the Coast Steamship Company, during the war Capt. Tarpey was commander of the fast steamship Harvard, operated with the Yale Channel route service between England and France.

A Stubborn Cough
Loosens Right Up

This home-made remedy is a wonder for quick results. Easily and cheaply made.

Here is a home-made syrup which millions of people have found to be the most dependable means of breaking up stubborn coughs. It is cheap and simple, but very prompt in action. Under its healing, soothing influence, chest soreness goes, phlegm loosens, breathing becomes easier, tickling in throat stops and you get a good night's restful sleep. The worst cold and chest colds are conquered by it in 24 hours or less. Nothing better for bronchitis, hoarseness, croup, throat, tickle, bronchial asthma or winter coughs.

To make this splendid cough syrup, you need only 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex in a 16-oz. bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup and shake thoroughly. If you prefer, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, you get 16 ounces—a family supply—of much better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for $2.50. Keeps perfectly and children love its pleasant taste.

STEAMER LOADING AT HARBOR WILL

Canadian Puget Sound Mill Shipping 600,000 Feet of Lumber to San Francisco

To load 600,000 feet of lumber for San Francisco, the steamer Hanley reached port this morning and is now berthed at the Canadian Puget Sound mill in the Upper Harbor.

Loading of the vessel has been started and she will clear port toward the end of the week for San Francisco.

The Hanley is the first vessel that has loaded at the Upper Harbor mill for some time, and it is predicted that she is the forerunner of a brisk movement in the lumber export business from this port. Considerable dredging has been carried out in the Upper Harbor and conditions are now favorable for the docking of large vessels at the Canadian Puget Sound mill.

Large cargoes of lumber have been shipped from this mill in the past. The lumber export business is picking up, it is said, and new charters may be arranged in the near future.

The Canadian Puget Sound mill has been operating at full time between 200 and 300 men have been finding steady employment.

REGISTRATION MUST SPEED UP

Federal Election List Growing Slowly; Warning Issued

A falling off in the number of electors registering for the Federal election was noted yesterday, according to Returning Officer R. P. Clark. As against a total of 224 registering Monday, the total for yesterday was 211.

Yesterday's registration was as follows: Ward One, women 8, men 17; Ward Two, women 9, men 34; Ward Three, women 29, men 27; Ward Four, women 15, men 18; Ward Five, women 23, men 31.

The daily average of registrations should be about three times as heavy in order to reconstitute those who were disfranchised through failure to vote at the last provincial election, the provincial list being used as a basis by the Federal Government.

A warning was issued by General Clark that electors who wish to vote at the Federal election on December 6 should, at once visit the registration booth in the ward to which they belong and make certain that their name is put on the list.

No Choir Rehearsal.—Members of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church Choir are notified that the rehearsal will again be postponed this week on account of the renovation work which is going on.

Mrs. Green's Recital.—Tickets for the recital to be given by Mrs. Gertrude Huntley Green at the Empress Hotel on November 8, are available at Heintzman's and Fletcher's Music stores.

Sale Realized Well.—The sum of $145 was raised at the excellent sale of work held at St. Mary's Hall on Saturday last by the Women's Auxiliary. The thanks of the Association have been extended to Mrs. Quailton, Mrs. Crease, Mrs. Scott and to all those who aided to make the function the success it was.

Man Hurt Yesterday.—As the result of a collision between a milk wagon and an automobile on Quadra Street yesterday evening a young Hindu named Singh is in the hospital to-day, with slight injuries. The car was driven by another Hindu, the car striking the horse-drawn vehicle unexpectedly.

Press Industry Plans.—Plans for the opening of a new soft drink manufactory here were under consideration by the Civic Industrial Committee when it met this morning under Chairman Alderman John Harvey. The city is negotiating with interests which wish to commence the manufacture of soft drinks in the city, and which are desirous of securing a site for a factory.

Consider Paving Scheme.—The city court of revision on the Government Street paving scheme, which was completed last Summer, held a brief formal session this morning to ratify local improvement taxes, chargeable on account of the scheme upon Government Street property owners. Aldermen Sangster, Woodward and Harvey composed the court of revision.

Hallowe'en Masquerade.—Hallowe'en masquerade social was held on Monday evening at the Fairfield Methodist Church by the Excelsior Bible Class and the Epworth League, to which friends were invited, making upwards of a hundred people present. The costumes were well chosen, and the committee in charge of the evening had their work so well planned that there was not a dull moment.

Business Girls' Dance.—The Victoria Business Girls will be the hostesses at a dance at the Alexandra ballroom to-morrow evening, when Ozard's orchestra will furnish the music. The club has been responsible for the organization of so many enjoyable social affairs in the past that the success of to-morrow's dance is already assured. There has been a big demand for tickets which are being sold by the members.

Nanaimo Riding Campaign.—T. Booth, the Liberal candidate in Nanaimo riding, is now in Victoria, making arrangements to address the electors of this district. A very enthusiastic meeting of the Saanich and Oak Bay Liberal Association was held on Monday in the association rooms, 22 Arcade Building, at which Councillor Simpson, the president, occupied the chair. Details of plans for the forthcoming Dominion election campaign were thoroughly discussed.

Agricultural Class.—The night class in agriculture at the Victoria High School will meet at 7.30 o'clock this evening in the agricultural laboratory for re-enrollment and commencement work. A large class has already been enrolled. There is accommodation for a few more, however, and as yet secured their tickets may have been missed by some who require a course of this kind they may secure registration as far as the accommodation allows by being on hand at the time stated.

16th Battalion, Canadian Scottish.—There will be a meeting of all N.C.O.'s of the battalion in the Drill Hall to-morrow at 8 p.m. It is important that all N.C.O.'s make an effort to be there as the uniforms have now begun to arrive from Scotland, and the drill for the season will soon be commencing. This meeting is called principally to let the N.C.O.'s become acquainted with Sergeant-Major Collins, who has been attached to the unit from the permanent forces and also to discuss ways and means of getting the unit on a good footing for the coming season.

J. B. A. Dance.—The dance committee of the J. B. A. met at their club rooms last evening, and completed the arrangements for their annual dance, which is to be held at the Alexandra ball room on Thursday evening of this week. The favorable reports received from the ladies' committee and the various sub-committees leave no doubts as to the success of the major event of the week. The organizers have spared no pains in their preparations to live up to their well-known reputation as entertainers, and judging by the demands for tickets their efforts are to be rewarded by an appreciative representative gathering of guests. Those who have not yet secured their tickets may reserve them by telephoning the secretary, John Wickson.

BROTHERHOOD MEETS
Victoria West Holds Enthusiastic Meeting; A. E. Todd Speaks.

An address by Alderman A. E. Todd outlining his proposals regarding municipal government systems was greatly appreciated by the Victoria West Brotherhood last night when Mr. Todd gave an interesting outline of his scheme.

The meeting was held in Sample's Hall, and there was a good attendance. Plans for the play which will be given at Sample's Hall, November 10 and 11, were discussed. Everything is in readiness for this interesting event, the proceeds of which will go to charity, and tickets may be obtained from any of the members of the Brotherhood. Record crowds are expected and tickets should be secured early.

Certain improvements in streets and an appropriation for park work, including the providing of facilities for tennis and other sports were discussed and steps will be taken to get the City Council to include an amount in the estimates to carry out the work proposed. Dangerous corners should be eliminated, the Brotherhood thinks.

Mary Street improvements from Esquimalt Road to Jessie Street, on Jessie Street, and at the corner of Langford Street and Front Street are suggested.

RIVALRY CONCERT PLEASED AUDIENCE

The Rivalry concert given by the "Three R's" Society of First Congregational Church proved to be one of the most successful events yet given by the society.

Before an audience which crowded the schoolroom to the doors the competing teams, Saanich and Victoria, sang, danced and played, both teams rendering programmes which were greatly enjoyed by the large audience.

The Saanich programme was as follows: Scene, old fashioned country inn; opening chorus, "Gently Roll"; solo, Mrs. Lock; "Longing for You"; encore, "Two Hundred Years Ago"; dance, minuet, entire company; solo, Miss Jennie Stubbs; violin solo, Austin Curtis; fairy dance, Miss Jennie Stubbs and Miss Marie Sjolander; solo, "The Convent Wall"; Mr. Curtis, sr.; closing chorus, "The Call to Arms." The following were also in the Saanich company: Miss E. Girling, Miss A. Girling, Miss M. Girling, Mr. Bert Lock, Mr. W. Hadfield, Miss A. Sjolander, Mr. Sidney Girling, Mrs. Curtis.

The Victoria team put on the following programme: Scene, Drawing room, Victorian Era; opening chorus, "Silent Night"; solo, "Last Rose of Summer"; Mrs. J. The costumes of both teams were very elaborate, and the characters were well sustained.

Local Football Body Asks of Scots' Funds

Victoria and District Football Association Passes Resolution Asking for Financial Statement — Locals Know There Were Profits

President Dan McNeill and Secretary Roy, of the Dominion Football Association, had better hustle through their books and make up a financial statement of the tour of the Scottish football team last spring, or they'll be submerged in a lot of trouble that will take some stiff swimming to get through.

The Victoria and District Football Association in session last night went on record as demanding a statement of the funds. The local association will forward their request to the British Columbia Football Association, which is expected to take action in the matter.

Know There Were Profits. Victorians know that there were profits in connection with the Scottish team's tour. At the banquet tendered the Old Country players at the Dominion Hotel following their exhibition game here President McNeill made the statement that the last dollars required to defray the expenses of the tour had been taken in at the gate at the Stadium. Everything over and above would be profit and each provincial football body would receive its share, McNeill stated.

After the game here the Scottish team played several additional matches, including the one in Montreal against the All-star Canadian eleven, which drew a big gate.

Where's the Money. Now the footballers throughout the country are asking pertinent questions as to what happened to the profits. The Quebec Football Association exploded the trouble, which has now spread all over the Dominion.

McNeill and Roy promised a financial statement at the time of the annual meeting of the D. F. A. but said that their re-election would be essential to the preparation of one. They were returned to office but time has been flying and no statement has been made. The other day Secretary Roy is alleged to have stated that there were no profits. Of course Victorians know better.

Look Out For Trouble. There will be plenty of trouble before this matter is settled. Victorians will not rest until McNeill comes out with his statement.

"We know that there were profits," said an official of the local association this morning. "President McNeill told us so when he was here. We turned in about three thousand dollars at the gate here, and when there were profits we were entitled to our share of them. What's more, we intend to get ours and see that justice is done. The matter will be pressed by our delegate at the next meeting of the B. C. F. A. It is necessary, I believe that the Mainland footballers are equally as anxious as we are for some settlement."

NUMEROUS SKATERS ENJOYED OPENING

Eight Hundred People Attended First Session of Arena Last Night

Band Lived Up to Advance Notices and Helped Along Novice Skaters

Eight hundred skaters and a re-juvenated band participated in the official opening of the Arena last evening. Before 8:15 o'clock the hour set for the ice to take up its burden many skaters ventured out. When the band essayed its first selection there was a deluge of skaters through the narrow entrance, and from then until "The King" was played there was a steady whirl on the ice.

It Was a Long Way. Many of the "first-nighters" were satisfied with half the bands and wandered home with sore shins, but the braver ones stayed with the battle until their muscles became numb with the sharp, shooting pains, and then started for home whistling "It's a Long Way to Tipperary."

The joy of skating was greatly enhanced last night when the new Arena band under Bandmaster Dave Rife, lived up to its advance notices. The waiters were so cleverly executed that many of the beginners found that, under the inspiring strains, they were moved to greater efforts and maintained an upright position on skates for the longest period in their history. Every skater hopes that the band will continue its good work and blaze away until the morning up in the corner of the Arena winks its glass eye.

Open Five Days and Nights. The Arena will be open every Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday with skating in the afternoon and evening. The afternoon sessions start at 3 o'clock, and the evening performance is open to all-comers at 8:15 o'clock.

It is expected that skating this season will be more popular than ever before. Last night's crowd was up to the standard of previous years.

CHURCHES TO STAGE BASKET BALL NIGHT
Churches Teams to Play Saturday; Provincial Championships to Play

Although basketball has been holding the boards at the Drill Hall on Saturday nights for the past four years, finding a large number of enthusiasts awaiting their turn-out, it is doubtful to say whether the Drill Hall sport will be as popular as the basketball night which is to be held at the First Presbyterian Church on Saturday. Two games are to be played.

As will be remembered, the ladies of this church made a good showing in the league last year, winning the city championship, then clinching with the mainlanders and securing the Provincial title. This team will meet the St. Andrew's ladies' team on Saturday night on the First Presbyterian gymnasium floor.

Belmonts vs. Firsts. Another excellent game is expected when the Belmont Seniors meet the First Presbyterian Seniors. Last year the Belmonts won the City and Provincial Sunday school championship, and the Presbyterians won the Open British Columbia title, defeating the Belmonts. The meeting of these teams will provide one of the best games seen here this season. November 5 is the date which has been selected for this sporting programme, and the whistle will blow at 8 o'clock, commencing, it is hoped, a splendid night's programme. It is expected that the attendance will be large.

It frequently happens that when a man says he is standing up for his rights, he means he is lying down on the job.

Hec Fowler Holdout; Wants to Perform With Saskatoon

Aristocrats' Goalie Does Not Want to Come to Coast This Year; Trade May Be Arranged For Him; Tommy Murray Might Be Brought Here to Mind the Cage This Season; Case Must Be Settled Soon.

Hec Fowler, who can stop more hard shots and miss more easy ones than any goalkeeper dead or alive, is a holdout.

Hec does not want to report to the Aristocrats this season, according to the latest dope from the hockey hearth. Hec was counted on coming back by Lester Patrick but a snag has developed somewhere.

Hec is a Saskatoon lad. He and his dad operate a printing shop up there round the Arctic Circle.

Saskatoon this year is going to have a professional hockey team. It has obtained a franchise in the "Big Five," along with Calgary and Edmonton.

Pride of the Town. It begins to look as though Hec wants to stay home and make a hole of himself in his own town. Hec always had an eye to business and his presence on a Saskatoon team would help to advertise his dad's outfit, provided Hec didn't miss too many of those long, easy floaters that broke the hearts of the Aristocrats more than once last season.

It is reported that Hec wants some kind of arrangement made between the Saskatoon Club and Lester Patrick whereby he can play with the Crescents. Just what kind of a proposition they will offer is not known. Lester Patrick has nothing to say in the matter and is just biding his time until some word comes from Bid Binder, manager of the Saskatoon Club.

A Whirlwind at Times. Fowler is one of the most liable fellows you'll meet in a lull around the planet. He is keen to win games or save 'em, whichever way you like it, but last year he was off color like a century plant. In previous years Hec had proved to be one of those whirlwind goalies, able to stop anything but a tank. Last winter he looked like a million dollars at times and then again he made one weep like an onion.

What Hec would be capable of doing this year is a hard sell. He might come back and make Hughie Lehman look like a second-string actor. And then again—but that's a different matter and won't do till Hec decides to come to Victoria.

Had Plenty of Friends. Despite the fact that several of last year's losses could be attributed to the way Hec was hypnotized by long shots from the blue line, one must admit that he was one of the most popular hockey players that ever skidded up and down in front of a net.

Perhaps Hec may not come to Victoria and a satisfactory trade may be entered into. Fowler, however, is the property of the Victoria Club, and Saskatoon cannot take him unless the Patrick's say so, owing to the agreement signed by the P. C. H. A. and the "Big Five."

It is not known who Lester would secure for the goalie's berth in the event of Hec staying home. Tommy Murray, who once played with Hec in Victoria and is now in Portland, is available. He is a smart lad and has plenty of cuteness in stopping the puck. Whether or not there is a better man at large than the local one is not known at the present time. Some announcement in regard to Fowler's intentions are expected within a few days.

SASKATOON SAYS ONE THING; REGINA ANOTHER

Regina, Nov. 2.—The Saskatchewan Rugby Union is faced with an unusual situation, following two conflicting decisions made last night over the protest lodged by Saskatoon against the Regina club's win in the northern city Saturday. The protest was considered at two meetings. At Saskatoon, the meeting called by President Bishop allowed the protest, while a meeting held in Regina and presided over by Secretary C. M. Johnson, disallowed the protest.

AUSRAIAN RUGBY TEAM TO PLAY HERE
Fifteen Now Touring England Will Return Home Via British Columbia

Vancouver, Nov. 2.—The Australian rugby team, now playing in the Northern Union series in England, will play a series of matches in Canada on its way home next spring. Mr. Dal Thomas, former Welsh international star, now resident in British Columbia, has been asked to arrange and manage the tour. He expects to stage a game each in Montreal, Winnipeg, Vancouver, Victoria, Seattle and possibly in Philadelphia.

The visitors will be opposed by local teams where the existence of professional rugby players makes this possible. Elsewhere exhibition matches will be played, the Australians having enough men to make up two teams. It is understood that the Australians will leave England early in March next.

THE DRAW. The Victoria and District Football Association met last night and arranged the schedule for Saturday. The draw will be as follows:

Old Rivals, Wests And Mets, to Play

Stellar Soccer Attraction Will Be Provided On Saturday When Top Teams Meet to Try and Break Tie For Leadership In First Division; Game May Decide City Senior Championship.

After several weeks of mediocre attractions, a stellar soccer game is to be provided the soccer fans on Saturday. The Mets and Wests are going to face each other at the Royal Athletic Park, with the kick-off at 2:45 o'clock and Referee Faulkner in charge.

The side-liners will not need much coaxing to toddle out to see these old rivals in action. Some of the rabid fans would stand in water up to their knees to watch the fur fly and the argument settled.

For the past two seasons the Mets and Wests have been sworn enemies. They have met many times and there has been little to choose between them. So far the count has gone to the Mets, but the edge is very slight. In the first game this season the Wests and Mets played to a draw, which was the result of some of their tussles last season.

First Place At Stake. The clubs will turn out their strongest sides in order to stave off defeat. If either team secures a win it will be entitled to first place, with a lead of two points over the other. The Mets and Wests have won all their games this season with the exception of the opening game, when they split the points on a tie.

It is generally conceded that Saturday's game will be decided one way or the other. This game may decide the championship of the First Division. This is the last time that the clubs meet in the series, and as it is possible for either team to defeat any of the other eleven in the league, the winner of Saturday's tussle may be crowned the champions.

VANCOUVER HOCKEY TEAMS PRACTISING

Amateurs Getting Into Shape for Opening of League Middle of December

Vancouver, Nov. 2.—With the open matches scheduled for about the middle of December, Vancouver amateur hockey players are rapidly rounding into form and they should be setting a pretty fast clip when the curtain goes up on the league race. Allocated regular practice nights the various clubs have had their squads out in full strength. Not a few of the teams will trot out new players for the coming season's race.

There are four starters in the senior series. Towers, Varsity, Monarchs and Elks will battle for the championship, which the Varsity copied last year. In the intermediate division, Provincials, Nationals, Towers and possibly Varsity will hook up in the championship derby. Two teams have so far entered the junior series. A couple more are expected within the next couple of weeks.

Two Nights Each Week. It is altogether likely that the same arrangements concerning games which were in effect last season will be adopted this year. This provides for the Commercial League games on Tuesday nights, with the seniors staging their contests on Fridays.

There will be the usual play-off in the senior series, the winners meeting Victoria champions in the provincial championship finals. The provincial champions will then be in line for the Allan Cup competition.

It was hoped that the "International" league might have been made further representative through the inclusion of Ireland but it was discovered that there are few good kickers here, most of them being at home helping to fill the newspapers with a daily splattering of copy.

There will be plenty of good sport despite the absence of Ireland.

YARROWS TO PRACTICE.
A practice of Yarrows football club will be held this evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Veterans of France clubrooms. All players are asked to attend.

Native Sons, England and Scotland to Compete for Championship—First Game Thanksgiving Day Between Thistles and Roses

International football is to be played in Victoria. Right within the confines of the Capital the soccer talent of Canada, England and Scotland is to battle for supremacy. Followers of the various clans can now start forming up because the first game of the local "international" championship will be staged on Thanksgiving Day.

At the regular weekly meeting of the Victoria and District Football Association held last night it was decided to arrange an international championship, with at least three games.

Three Games All Told. The names of the three clans were put into a bonnet and a draw made. It happened that the Scotians and Bhoys were drawn for the first tussle. The Native Sons and Scots are to appear in the second "international" match, and the Natives and England will perform in the third tussle.

Arrangements for the first game were completed. The dates for the others will be set later. It is expected that they will be played on Christmas and New Year's Day. The game on Thanksgiving Day, next Monday, will be staged at the Stadium and the kick-off will be at 2:30 o'clock. R. A. Brown will be the referee.

Natives Should Win. There is always a great amount of interest in games of an international nature. The best drawing card has always been between the Native Sons and Old Country players, with the break being just below even. Now that it has been decided to break the Old Country forces in two by having teams representing both England and Scotland, it looks as though the lads who saw the light of day in this land will have a big evening.

The work of picking the teams for Monday's match is now underway. The management of the Sons of England will pick the Bhoys, and the Thistles will assemble the Scottish international eleven.

There will undoubtedly be a big gathering of folk at the Stadium to see whether Scotland can slip something over on England.

It was hoped that the "International" league might have been made further representative through the inclusion of Ireland but it was discovered that there are few good kickers here, most of them being at home helping to fill the newspapers with a daily splattering of copy.

There will be plenty of good sport despite the absence of Ireland.

Humorous Yarns Are Told of Geo. Kennedy

The passing of few men from the stage of sport in the Dominion of Canada has attracted more attention or called for more voluminous tribute than the death recently in Montreal of George Kennedy. This is particularly true of the Eastern writers, who knew Kennedy best, and while not all were in accord with many of his methods, there are none who fail to pay him tribute as a game fighter, a man whose word, once passed, was good to the last letter.

Among the most interesting reminiscences of the late Montreal sportsman are the following: Kennedy was a young French-Canadian, the Ottawa Hockey Club and formerly sporting editor of the Ottawa Citizen, who knew Kennedy intimately and writes out of a man whose word, once passed, was good to the last letter.

With the passing at Montreal of George Washington Kennedy, a familiarly known to lovers of sport as George Kennedy, there disappeared the dominating figure in Canadian professional hockey. How little did Ottawa think, as a memorable night at Laurier Avenue Arena last February, when Kennedy walked down the ice and smilingly lifted his hat to acknowledge a chorus of hisses and boos (for his name, Kennedy, which was a reminder of the last time that familiar, immaculate figure in brown broadcloth, George Kennedy seemed a permanent fixture in hockey. Canadians were always a wonderful attraction, but it was always Kennedy, a remarkable genius for organization and advertisement.

"My record speaks for itself," the late George Kennedy once said to the writer. "I have been in hockey ten years and have won five championships. I have been in second round times and once last. My team has always filled the other rinks to the roof. What more could you expect?"

Ottawa, of course, to give credit and reverence to the dead, knew the late George Kennedy as the doctory irrepressible leader of the Canadiens, a sworn enemy of the Senators, the manager of the Canadiens, and a defeat to their beloved Ottawa was both here and abroad. They recognized him as a force, and they treated him as such. His defeat was their joy.

But those intimately connected with the late sportsman in hockey, lacrosse, wrestling and other sports were not so much concerned with a big hearted, smiling fellow, full of wit and humor, a past master in the art of bluffing when such was necessary to win his point; a born actor, a square sport, a true gentleman, and through and through, and one of the most likeable men that has ever figured in hockey.

George Kennedy fought and struggled hard for his success in sport. It isn't long ago, according to Montreal men, since Kennedy stood on one of the door ways of the Tremblay on the other, taking tickets for their wrestling bouts. As a wrestler Kennedy proved a sensation. Then he blossomed as a promoter, made good from the first bout he managed, and finally became one of the greatest in the game. He managed some of the best American grapplers; when the powers of attraction exhausted he journeyed to Europe where he discovered Constant Le Masin, Yusiff Mahmut, Raymond Cazeaux and many others—most of whom have appeared under Kennedy's management in Ottawa. He broke into lacrosse, developed his Irish Canadianians into a championship team in Big Four, opened the historic bowling alley in Montreal, bought an interest in a moving picture enterprise, and had a large share in the most profitable cartage business in Montreal. Into everything he tackled Kennedy threw all his energy, his magnetic personality and his fund of experience. No wonder he succeeded where others had failed! He had executive ability to burn.

But hockey became Kennedy's favorite hobby. He took it with all seriousness, to get real sport and enjoyment out of it. A natural humorist, he loved to "kid the public," and he loved to worry his opponents. Once last winter, with 8,000 people in the Ottawa Arena shouting for vengeance on Canadians, one of the Ottawa rink attendants rushed up to Kennedy and said: "You had better not go out on the ice to-night Mr. Kennedy, they'll make it hot for you."

"Don't worry about me," was the Canadian president's reply. "I love to hear them holler," whereupon he opened the players' gate, walked down to the Canadian bench, and lifted his hat to acknowledge Ottawa's demonstration of hostility.

Kennedy would rather beat Ottawa than dine. In the heat of the Ottawa-Canadian controversy last winter, following Ottawa's refusal to continue a game at Montreal, the Ottawa secretary wired, asking how many tickets Canadians would require for the return match in the Capital. Back came the reply: "None. None of my friends want to see you or your yellow team again."

Several years ago he wanted a goalkeeper to replace Vezina, who was sick, and the Ottawa representative, a young French-Canadian, two weeks later they telegraphed Kennedy: "Is new goalie making good? How much will you give for him out-right?" and the crafty Canadian leader flashed back: "He isn't a hockey player. He is a poker player. I have to pay him all the players' salaries this week. Recall him at once."

In the thick of the Livingstone, Quinn-National Hockey League war last Autumn, Livingstone boldly announced he had signed forty stars for his new association, whereupon he got the following message, over the signature of George Washington Kennedy: "If you have forty players under contract, for God's sake send me some. I've only got ten."

Three seasons ago, when another bitter controversy was at its height, George Kennedy broke up a meeting in the Windsor Hotel by trying to wedge Strangled Lewis and "Doc" Roller in to represent Wanderers.

In Seattle one evening, with the score tied and Kennedy's Canadians panting for breath, George held up a world's series game while he raced to his hotel, presumably in quest of a rule book, which he knew was in his inside pocket. In 1920, he engaged a bunch of European wrestlers for a tour of the States, with the agreement that they should be paid as soon as their contracts ended. He paid them off in Canadian currency and pocketed about $15,000 on the American exchange rate.

Kendall got by for many years as a clerk in his father's office at Montreal when a prominent citizen of the metropolis suddenly recognized him and shouted: "Why, there's George Kennedy, the champion lightweight wrestler."

"I didn't want to be fired," Kennedy said, in referring to the incident. "My father nearly disowned me."

Conferees used to Josh Kennedy about putting on a bull fight at Massineuve, to which about ten thousand paid admission. It was a fiasco.

"Wasn't my fault," Kendall would reply. "I got the crowd and the money, but I couldn't induce the
